

The tragedy of Man: He starts off with a Country—and winds up with a Government!

Hope

Star

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. Washburn

I-30 Complete in December;
Unspeedy Mail

The Highway Commission announced in an AP dispatch last Friday, June 30, that the last nine miles of Interstate 30 paving will be laid between Emmet and Prescott by December, completing I-30 from Texarkana to Little Rock.

I mention it here because in the volume of telegraph matter we handle every day—about 30,000 words—this particular item got lost. The main point of the story was that the last 20-mile unfinished stretch of Interstate 40—Memphis-Little Rock-Fort Smith—had been completed and was being dedicated.

Mention of I-30 was subordinated; nevertheless it was of prime importance to residents of our area. Completion of I-30 was previously set at an indefinite date such as "early next year." This was the first time that December 1972 had been made the target date—and it is good news for the public in general, although the diversion of highway traffic to a new route has always meant headaches for some individual businesses.

H. A. Spraggins of Hope mails me a clipping from the Wall Street Journal which holds forth on the delay in the mails.

According to the WSJ there is a spoof organization known as the National Association of Professional Bureaucrats which gives out an annual Award of the Bird.

This year's award went to the postal service for the "snailistic movement of special-delivery mail."

The award report says that a survey turned up these facts: Only 15 per cent of special-delivery letters arrived before regular mail—and one letter arrived a full day behind regular mail.

The award "Salutes the U.S. Postal Service for its dynamic inaction and forthright twidism."

I'm obliged to Mr. Spraggins for his clipping. However, sending me WSJ clippings is about liking ship coal to Newcastle. I've been reading WSJ for 40 years—but maybe he got this particular copy before I did. Mine sometimes comes two days—a condition that existed long before the sorting-section shakeup of May 6 about which the Hope area is complaining.

Castro leaves Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — Fidel Castro left Moscow today at the end of a 10-day visit that climaxed his extended tour of nine countries in Africa and Eastern Europe.

With a light rain falling, the Cuban prime minister and Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev walked arm in arm to the waiting plane after the traditional honor guard review and protocol farewells.

Just before boarding the plane, Castro embraced Brezhnev, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and President Nikolai V. Podgorny. A television commentator reporting the departure said it was the end of "an official but very very friendly visit."

Economic affairs were said to dominate the discussions. Soviet trade and assistance are the mainstays of the Cuban economy, and Western specialists estimate the Cuban operation costs the Soviet Union a million dollars a day.

Castro left Moscow for Minsk, the capital of Byelorussia, and was expected to spend at least a day there. The Tass report of his departure did not say whether he would visit other Soviet cities.

VOL. 73—No. 224—8 Pages

Member of the Associated Press
Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n. Features

HOPE, ARKANSAS, WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1972

Av. net paid circulation 3 mos. ending March 31, 1972—5,447, as filed with Audit Bureau of Circulations, subject to audit

PRICE 10c

Jets bomb 3 Hanoi depots

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American jets wrecked three major depots on the edges of Hanoi Tuesday in the heaviest raids on North Vietnam in weeks, and a 7th Fleet task force sank or damaged 12 supply barges off the North Vietnamese coast, the U.S. Command announced today.

In South Vietnam there was heavy fighting on the northern front and Hue was shelled for the fourth day. But no progress was reported from the paratroopers who reached the outskirts of Quang Tri City on Tuesday.

North Vietnam claimed that U.S. planes bombed and strafed residential areas of Hanoi, "killing or injuring many persons, and destroying or damaging hundreds of dwelling houses."

The U.S. Command denied ordering any attacks on civilian targets and said it had no information "indicating other than military targets were hit." But spokesmen acknowledged there may have been people working in the three supply and vehicle depots that were attacked during more than 320 strikes in North Vietnam Tuesday.

North Vietnam also claimed that two F4 Phantoms were shot down during the raids. The U.S. Command said it had no plane losses Tuesday to report yet. But it did announce that MIG21 interceptors shot down a pair of Phantoms southwest of Hanoi on June 27 and a surface-to-air missile brought down a third Phantom 40 miles northeast of Hanoi July 1. Two of the fliers were rescued, and four are missing, the command said.

During the last two weeks, the U.S. Command has reported nine planes lost over North Vietnam and 16 fliers missing, raising the toll since the resumption of full-scale bombing on April 6 to 54 aircraft downed and 61 airmen missing.

In a delayed report which apparently had to be cleared by the Pentagon because of its political sensitivity, the command said that a naval task force last Saturday caught a flotilla of barges transporting supplies from offshore freighters presumed to be from the Communist bloc.

Navy spokesmen said the destroyers Berkeley, Everett F. Larson and Gurke waited until the barges were clear of the freighters, then blasted them with their five-inch guns. The spokesmen said the destroyers' radarmen observed that 12 barges were sunk or damaged, but the ships were unable to identify the nationality of either the freighters or the barges because of darkness.

Radio Hanoi claimed today that North Vietnam is getting war supplies by sea through 12 coastal points which the United States had not been able to close by mines or offshore patrols. The broadcast did not locate any of the points.

In South Vietnam, the U.S. Command said, American planes accidentally attacked South Vietnamese marines five miles southeast of Quang Tri City. The command said 11 marines were killed and 30 were wounded. Spokesmen said the attack is under investigation.

Small clashes were reported east of Quang Tri City, and South Vietnamese forces were reported still on the outskirts of the provincial capital that is the first major objective of the 20,000-man counteroffensive launched last week.

Pompidou fires French premier

PARIS (AP) — President Georges Pompidou fired Jacques Chaban-Delmas as France's premier today and named Pierre Messmer to succeed him.

Chaban-Delmas has recently been under fire because of personal tax dealings.

Shortly after the announcement that Chaban-Delmas and his government had stepped down, Pompidou summoned Messmer, like Chaban-Delmas one of the earliest followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

An exchange of letters between the president and Chaban-Delmas noted that Pompidou had asked the premier to leave the post he had held for a little more than three years.

Messmer, 56, who had been De Gaulle's defense minister, had a long record as a soldier and administrator of France's overseas possessions. He fought in the French-Indochina war and was taken prisoner by the Viet Minh.

The dismissal of Chaban-Delmas came quickly on the heels of his return with Pompidou from a summit conference in West Germany.

Although there was no announcement as to the reasons for the firing, all immediate signs pointed to Chaban-Delmas' dismissal because of domestic issues.

All Around Town

The Hope Optimist Club will meet Thursday at 6:15 a.m. at the Town and Country. This will be the last week to become a charter member.

Members of the Class of '62 of Hope High School are asked to meet at the Youth Center on Friday, July 7, at 7:30 p.m. to discuss plans for a class reunion. For further information contact Leon Prince, Hope.

Starfoto-Smith

Tough goin' for some

Monday afternoon's heavy downpour left many of Hope's streets under a few inches of water—like South Main St. above. Fourteen-year-old Mike Beggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beggs, found riding through the water a bit tough, even if the pickup going by didn't.

New Japanese prime minister named

By JOHN RODERICK
Associated Press Writer

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's ruling conservatives today named Kakuei Tanaka, a dynamic rags-to-riches construction man turned politician, to be prime minister with a mandate for bold new approaches to the United States and China.

The Liberal-Democratic Party in effect turned its back on the cautious establishment politics of Prime Minister Eisaku Sato, who is retiring at 71. It decisively rejected the bid of his protégé, 67-year-old Foreign Minister Takeo Fukuda, to succeed him.

Tanaka, at 54 the youngest prime minister since 1945, won the party presidency and with it leadership of the government at a convention of the party's members in the Diet, the Japanese parliament. The vote on the second runoff ballot was 282-190, with four blank votes.

The Diet will meet Thursday to confirm Tanaka as prime minister for a three-year term, a formality since the party has a sizable majority in both houses. He is expected to announce his cabinet on Friday.

Tanaka's victory resulted from growing restlessness within the party over Sato's inability to cope with the problems of China, the United States and mounting domestic difficulties. Little change would have been expected had Fukuda been chosen.

Tanaka made a brief, restrained acceptance speech

Purcell expresses concern

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Joe Purcell of Benton, chairman of the state Democratic party, said Tuesday he did not authorize the party headquarters to mail out literature last week that carried critical allusions to Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S. D., a presidential candidate.

No one else had authority to do so, Purcell said, adding that he was concerned about the matter.

"It was mailed without my consent and without my approval," Purcell said. "I knew nothing about it until I read (it in the newspaper). I don't know who authorized it, but no one had a right to authorize it."

stressing that unity of the party must continue. He has said previously that he would give his major attention to repairing the frayed relations with the United States and to bringing about diplomatic relations with Communist China.

Problems with the United States developed when Japan achieved a favorable balance of trade, then steadily widened it with a river of low-cost, high-quality goods poured onto the American market. Angry talk combined with American restrictions soured the old relationship, and relations are still strained despite a visit last month by presidential adviser Henry Kissinger.

President Nixon's unexpected rapprochement with Peking without prior consultation with its chief Asian ally, also hit Sato in the political jaw and weakened his standing within the country and the party. And Peking said there could be no real improvement in Japanese-Chinese relations until Sato went.

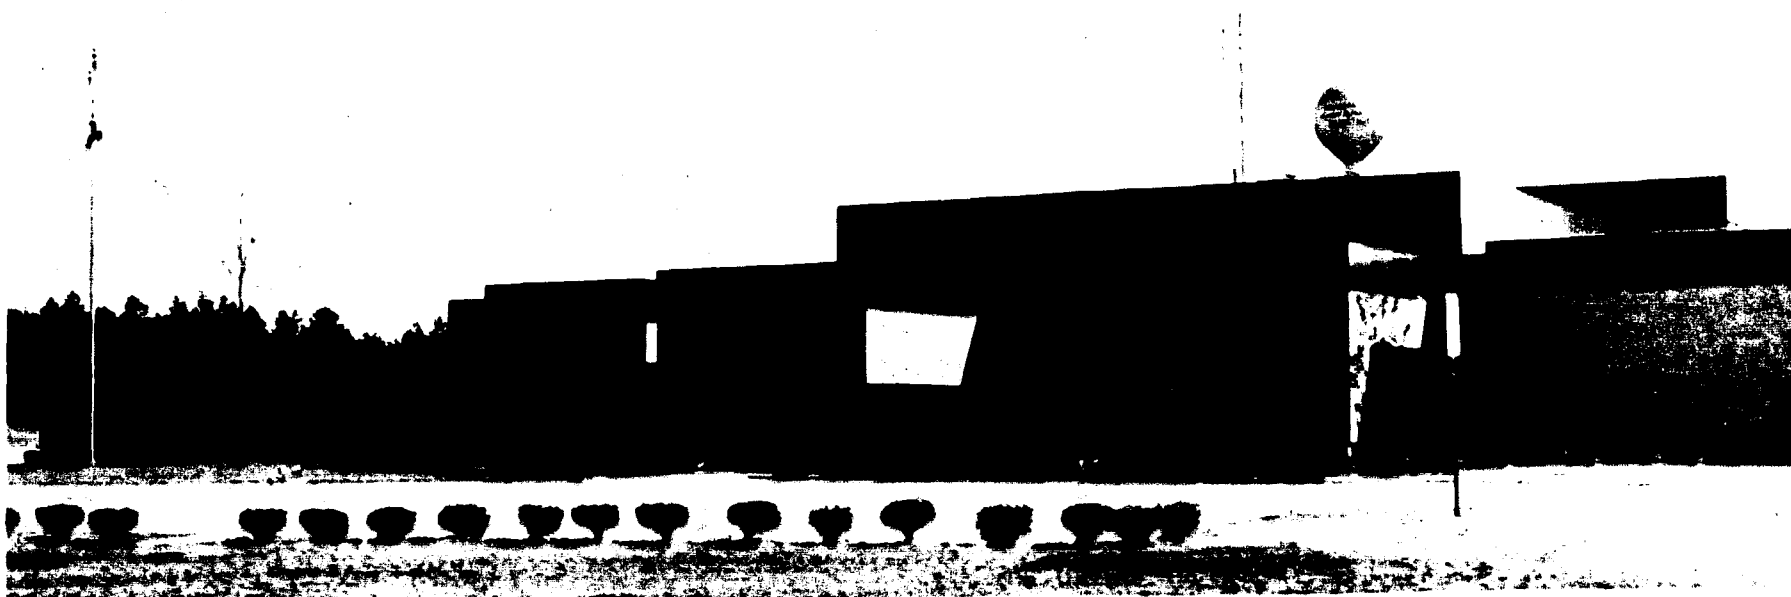

Highway Department building approved

The state Highway Department will issue a work order today authorizing construction to begin on a new district headquarters facility here. Work will begin within 10 days after the work order is issued.

A contract was awarded to Bush Construction Company of Hot Springs on May 24; the firm will have 120 working days in which to complete the contract.

The headquarters will be built on a 30-acre plot at the northeast corner of Interstate 30 and Highway 29 north of Hope. The buildings will face I-30 but entry will be gained from Highway 29. Construction will include an administration and maintenance building capable of being used as an emergency operations center, a resident engineer's building, a service station, a chemical storage building, an equipment storage building and site improvement work.

The style of architecture and overall layout will be similar to the facilities already in use (see left) at Wynne, Batesville, Camden, Russellville, Harrison, and Paragould.

AHD BUILDING PLANNED—A new Arkansas Highway Department district headquarters building, similar in design to the one above, will be constructed here. A work order for the building will be issued today, and construction will begin within the next 10 days.

Warming up for the main bout

Nuisance problem solution

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Aides to Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and George McGovern are sparring verbally in a warmup for next week's Democratic National Convention while a federal appeals court considers the crucial California and Illinois credentials cases.

Jack Chestnut, Humphrey's campaign manager, demanded that McGovern fire or repudiate Rick Stearns, one of his campaign aides, for saying that he favored a third party to "punish" Humphrey should the Minnesota senator win the Democratic presidential nomination.

"Talk of punishment of the Democratic party is irresponsible and can't be tolerated," Chestnut said, reacting to the Stearns comments which seem to be part of an effort by some McGovern aides to convince party leaders that denial of the nomination to the front-running

South Dakota senator would split the party.

Both Humphrey and McGovern were resting — Humphrey at his Waverly, Minn., lakeside home, McGovern at his Eastern shore Maryland farm — while their supporters spent the Fourth of July arguing the California and Illinois credentials cases before the U.S. Circuit Court in Washington.

U.S. District Court Judge George L. Hart refused Monday to overturn Democratic Credentials Committee decisions ousting 151 McGovern delegates from California and 59 uncommitted delegates from Illinois headed by Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley.

Frank Mankiewicz, McGovern's national political director, said on the CBS radio program "Capitol Cloakroom" there is still hope the competing Illinois delegations can reach a compromise "and that something can be worked out seating them both."

In this sweltering convention center, meanwhile, the City Council planned to reconsider today whether it will reverse a decision against granting campsites for the young nondelegates expected in Miami Beach for next week's convention.

At a news conference Tuesday, Convention Manager Richard Murphy announced that the hall would be "buttoned up" from midnight Sunday until late Monday afternoon for a bomb search recommended by the Secret Service.

He said afternoon sessions may be necessary next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon to handle minority reports on the nomination proceedings begin.

Alternate delegates may be forced to take seats in the gallery, Murphy said, because Credentials Committee rulings on contested delegations have resulted in half-vote splits between warring factions.

A number of protesters are already here, in advance of the candidates and delegates. About 40 staged a brief mock funeral outside the Convention Hall Tuesday for a young Vietnamese killed in Saigon Sunday when he tried to hijack an American plane.

When they sought to drop a 3-by-5 foot slab of plywood laden with flowers into a canal as part of the ceremony, police retrieved it twice, then carted it off in a boat the third time. The demonstrators then dispersed.

While the demonstrators and party officials were the main players on this stage, major attention was still on the credentials battles in Washington.

In Circuit Court, Joseph A. Califano Jr., the attorney for the Democratic National Convention, pressed his argument that the federal courts have no role in the credentials issues, regardless of the wisdom of what the party panel was doing.

"If it (the party) wants to push the self-destruct button on these issues, that's its First Amendment right," he argued.

The California case, heading for a convention showdown on Monday night, is the most crucial because the 151 delegates taken from McGovern by the committee decision to require proportional representation of the 271 delegates may leave him short of a first-ballot nomination.

Far behind the South Dakota senator are Humphrey with 490.55; Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, 381; and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, 225.55. A total of 454.4 are un-including the decisions reached by the Credentials Committee, the latest Associated Press count gives McGovern 1,281.9 first-ballot votes — 237.1 short of the 1,509 needed for the nomination. Restoration of the 151 California votes could leave him less than 100 away.

In other developments: —President Jerry Wurf of the 600,000-member American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees switched his support from Muskie to McGovern. But United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock said praise for McGovern Monday night was "misconstrued" as being an endorsement. He added he could support either McGovern or Humphrey but that "It looks as if McGovern is going to get it."

Wolves, coyotes, and wild dogs continue to pose a problem for many of Nevada County's beef cattle producers.

After consulting Robert A. Pierce, extension wildlife specialist, Adrian Brackman, county extension agent, met with the County Farm Bureau board of directors in October, and urged the organization to buy 12 traps for use by farmers who have problems with nuisance animals. The board voted to do this, and 12 traps with offset jaws were purchased from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission.

Rocky Lynch, supervisor, nuisance animal control section, a State Game and Fish Commission, also said that he had employees under his supervision who would go to individual farms and demonstrate the method of setting the traps.

The first farmer to take advantage of this in the county was James Hamilton, whose farm is located near Emmet. Hamilton had one pasture near a creek bottom that his cattle would not graze due to the nuisance animals. The farm was visited in the same week by a specialist from the Fish Commission and Pierce for the purpose of not only showing the farmer how to set the traps, but where they should be located relative to the areas where he was having the most trouble.

Within a month, the wild animals that had been pestering his cattle had been caught. Hamilton said this effort solved a menacing problem for him.

TRUMAN'S CONDITION IS 'SATISFACTORY'

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman remains in satisfactory condition at Research Medical Center, where he is hospitalized for tests relating to what doctors say is a "lower gastrointestinal ailment."

★★★★★

McGovern gets victory in battle in appeals court

Would-be skyjacker surrenders

Doesn't get off the ground

By MARVIN R. PIKE

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A man surrendered to an FBI agent early today after holding his 17-month-old daughter hostage at knife point and threatening to kill her in an abortive attempt to hijack an American Airlines jet, police said.

The FBI said the man, identified as Charles Smith, 23, of Buffalo, agreed to give up after being assured that police would not harm him.

According to the FBI and local police, the entire episode began with a stabbing incident in Buffalo's inner city during the early morning hours.

Richard Ash, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, said Smith boarded the unoccupied jetliner as it stood near a terminal gate about 5 a.m. at Buffalo International Airport.

He demanded that the airline provide a pilot for the craft and said he would kill the child if his demands were not met.

"He apparently decided he was not going to get out" of the airport, Ash said, describing how Smith put down the knife he was carrying and walked down the ramp of the plane 2½ hours later, carrying his daughter. He was accompanied by an unidentified FBI agent who had sneaked aboard the plane.

The child, identified as Juan Smith, was not injured, Ash said. Ash said blood on the infant's clothing was Smith's from a wound he suffered earlier.

Ash said Smith would face a charge of attempted hijacking.

Police said Smith apparently slipped aboard the unoccupied jet about 5 a.m. and demanded that American Airlines provide a pilot for the craft.

"I want a pilot," he shouted to police and FBI agents who surrounded the plane as it stood at a terminal gate.

A group of FBI agents and police gathered near a ramp to the plane, using a baggage cart as a barricade.

A man and woman took turns using a bullhorn to call up to Smith. The woman, identified by an FBI agent as Smith's mother, walked part way up the ramp at one point, talked with Smith, then returned.

Smith and the girl were visible just inside the plane.

Scores of airline passengers passed through the terminal as usual. Many seemed unaware of what was happening at the American gate.

From the upper level of the airport terminal, "news" could be seen holding the girl in his arms. At times he and the girl could be seen sitting in a front seat. Now and then he would carry the girl to the rear and then return to the front.

Outside, on the ground, FBI agents talked to him using a bull horn. Reporters were kept away and could not hear whether he made any reply.

Earlier, he had shouted that he did not want to see newsmen, cameras, or tape recorders.

All available Cheektowaga police, FBI agents and Buffalo homicide detectives rushed to the airport and surrounded the plane at Gate Seven.

Police said that, after the stabbing, Smith grabbed the girl and drove to the airport. There, they said, he created a commotion at the post office and threatened to harm the girl. He then dragged the girl along as he climbed aboard the jet.

Police said Smith was bleeding and they believed he had suffered some type of injury.

It was not known immediately whether the girl was injured.

Police said Smith had left a note at his mother's home.

Obituaries

LUTHER N. GARNER
Luther N. Garner, Jr., 49, formerly of Hope, died Tuesday evening in a Midland, Tex. hospital after a brief illness. He was associated with the Grammer-Murphy Department Store in Midland where he was office manager, secretary-treasurer, and comptroller.

He is survived by his wife, Delores; his mother, Mrs. Pearl Garner of Hope; and one sister, Mrs. Opal Hervey, also of Hope.

Funeral services will be at 11:30 a.m. Thursday at Ellis Funeral Home Chapel in Midland. The body will be returned to Hope for graveside services Friday at 4 p.m. in the Rose Hill Cemetery under the direction of Herndon Funeral Home of Hope.

MRS. NONA COFIELD
Mrs. Nona Cofield, 80, of Emmet, died Monday in a Magnolia hospital. She was a retired school teacher and member of the Baptist Church of Emmet.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Earl Dudeney of Hope, Mrs. Odie DeHann of Ruston, La., and Mrs. Charles Dodson of Magnolia; three brothers, Orna and Stephen Snell of Emmet, and J. C. Snell of Hope; six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were at 3 p.m. today in the Baptist Church of Emmet with the Rev. Ray Lawrence of Magnolia officiating. Burial was in Forrest Hills Cemetery under the direction of Herndon Funeral Home.

MRS. JOAN S. WILSON
Mrs. Joan Sunstron Wilson, formerly of Hope, died late Monday in a Huntington Beach, Calif. hospital at the age of 35.

She is survived by her husband, Jimmy, and one son, Randy, of Huntington Beach, Calif.; her father, George Sunstron, and one brother, George Sunstron, Jr., both of Phoenix, Ariz.; and her grandfather, J. A. Davis, of Hope.

The body will be returned to Hope at noon Thursday, with funeral services Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Herndon Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Memory Gardens under the direction of Herndon Funeral Home.

MINERVA BLACKWOOD
Minerva Blackwood died Tuesday in a Little Rock hospital. Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Herndon Funeral Home.

Weather

Experiment station report for 24 hours ending 7 a.m. Wednesday, High 86, Low 62, with .39 inches rain.

Forecast
ARKANSAS: Fair north and partly cloudy south and continued unseasonably cool over the state today. Fair and cooler tonight. Fair to partly cloudy and mild Thursday. High today mid 70s to low 80s. Low tonight 50s to low 60s. High Thursday upper 70s to mid 80s.

Weather Elsewhere

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

	High	Low	Pr.
Albany, cldy	73	53
Albuquerque, cldy	81	59	.43
Amarillo, cldy	62	54
Anchorage, clear	71	53
Asheville, rain	77	64	.80
Atlanta, cldy	88	66	.45
Birmingham, rain	83	66	.48
Bismarck, cldy	73	42
Boise, cldy	95	70
Boston, cldy	77	60
Buffalo, cldy	68	53
Charleston, clear	89	73	.35
Charlotte, cldy	87	67
Chicago, clear	68	46
Cincinnati, clear	70	60	.12
Cleveland, cldy	M	M	M
Denver, clear	50	43
Des Moines, cldy	69	46
Detroit, M	M	M	M
Duluth, clear	69	46

Fort Worth, cldy	81	68	.01
Green Bay, clear	69	44
Helena, clear	77	44
Honolulu, cldy	86	77
Houston, cldy	92	70
Indianapolis, clear	73	49	.07
Jacks'ville, clear	95	71
Juneau, M	M	M	M

Little Rock, clear	81	62
Los Angeles, clear	87	65
Louisville, clear	73	60	.01
Marquette, cldy	69	52
Memphis, clear	80	61	.10
Miami, clear	86	83
Milwaukee, clear	57	45
Mpls-St.P. clear	71	45
New Orleans, clear	92	68
New York, rain	79	62	T
Okla. City, clear	76	57
Omaha, M	M	M	M

Phoenix, cldy	114	81
Pittsburgh, rain	73	55	.15
Pt'land, Ore. cldy	97	62
Pt'land, Me. cldy	74	47
Rapid City, clear	68	44
Richmond, rain	83	56	1.50
St. Louis, cldy	74	53	.14
Salt Lake, cldy	90	57
San Diego, clear	76	64
San Fran. cldy	62	54
Seattle, clear	91	61
Spokane, clear	87	50
Tampa, clear	87	73	.33
Washington, rain	81	64	.04

Canadian Cities
Edmonton, M	M	M	M
Montreal, M	M	M	M
Toronto, M	M	M	M
Winnipeg, M	M	M	M
(M—Missing; T—Trace)

Hope Legion delegates, officers

Dee Coffee, commander of Leslie Huddleston Post 12 of the American Legion announced today that at a special meeting of the local post held recently the following were elected officers for the year: Vance Marcum, commander; Tom Bartlett, vice commander; Raymond Jones, finance officer; Nels Epperson, historian; Dewey Hendrix, Sergeant-at-arms; and Joe Jones, chaplain.

Coffee also stated that in addition to himself, the following members had been selected as delegates and alternates for the Department Convention to be held in Little Rock Friday through Sunday (July 7-9): Marcum, Hendrix, Bartlett, Forrest Downs, Harry Hawthorne, Joe Jones, Talbot Feld Jr., Ernest V. Ratcliff, Dean Murphy, J. B. Warmack, and Albert H. Patton. Alternates are: Billie Lee Church, William A. Carrigan, Robert G. White, Tom Duncan, Paul Rawson, H. M. Olsen, Fred McManus, E. S. Franklin, Nels Epperson, Robert H. Cox, and Claude H. Byrd.

SS plan is advanced by Alexander

PORTIA, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Bill Alexander, D-Ark., said Tuesday persons should be able to receive full Social Security benefits no matter how much money they earn during the year.

Speaking at the 66th annual Fourth of July picnic here, Alexander said regulations on Social Security that limit the income a person can make without penalty were not realistic.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here today handed a victory to the forces of Sen. George McGovern in their battle with the Democratic Credentials Committee for California delegates.

At the same time, forces of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley were given a setback by the court in the second half of the dual attack on the committee's hotly disputed decisions.

The appeals court reversed a District Court decision which had upheld the committee's action of stripping 151 delegates from California. The Circuit Court ordered the district bench to rewrite its decision in the California case in accordance with an opinion not yet filed.

The Circuit Court rejected the appeal of Daley's forces in one case and in two others directed that state court action be prohibited insofar as the delegates from Illinois which were rejected by the committee are concerned.

The committee decisions were likened to a "self-destruct button" by the party's lawyer Tuesday even as he fought to uphold them before the appeals court.

Party counsel Joseph A. Califano told the three judges that federal courts have no business

Former resident will design U.S. embassy in Libya

Tommy Polk, a former resident of Hope, chief designer and an associate in architect firm of Roy L. Harrover and Associates of Memphis, will design a U.S. embassy for Libya in North Africa.

He will be making a visit to the site this month.

Polk, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Polk of Hope, has also designed the renovation project of the National Bank of Commerce in Memphis, and the Basic Medical Sciences Building for the University of Tennessee in Memphis.

He is married to the former Sarah Melton of Malden, Mo. They have two daughters—Natalie and Elizabeth.

Polk is a 1958 graduate of Hope High School, and a graduate of the University of Arkansas.

on their percentage of the vote.

Meanwhile, the Credentials Committee completed its pre-convention agenda and passed on to the convention the job of settling 13 contests over the seating of hundreds of delegates.

Many of the dissents concern issues raised by the mandate from the reform commission originally headed by McGovern: that women, young people and minorities be represented at the convention in proportion to their population.

In the court fight over the Illinois and California challenges, Califano argued that the party may do as it wishes. To illustrate, he said some believe that seating Daley and letting McGovern have the delegates he won would be the shrewd political move.

But, he said of the party, "If it wants to push the self-destruct button on these issues, that's its 1st Amendment right."

Arguing for McGovern forces in the California case, attorney Joseph L. Rauh Jr. said the party reforms recently instituted specifically do not bar winner-take-all primaries. He claimed the committee had acted arbitrarily and unconstitutionally in changing the rules on McGovern after the primary.

Successors to the ousted Illinois delegates were selected in meetings in the state's congressional districts. Original selection was by popular vote of Illinois Democrats.

REPHAN'S

SUMMER PRICE REDUCTIONS

LAY-A-WAY .BANK AMERICARD .MASTER-CHARGE .

ALL LADIES SUMMER SPORTS WEAR

1/3 Off

Includes "Aileen" Little Girls & Misses

LADIES SWIM SUITS

1/3 Off

GROUP LITTLE GIRLS SHORTS

88¢ Pair

"VOTE" THROW RUGS

For Back To College In Red-White & Blue Great For Walls Doors Or Floors

$2.00

All Men's Short Sleeve SHIRTS REDUCED

Some As Low As

$1.00 And $1.88 Each

MEN'S & BOYS WALKING SHORTS

1/3 Off

—PRE-SEASON— BLANKET SALE

Thermal Blankets LAY-A-WAY NOW FOR FALL

$3.88 And $4.88

WE ALSO HAVE LOTS OF Electric Blankets

$12.99 To $14.99

HAVE A WONDERFUL TRIP

and may we suggest that insurance such as Travel Accident, Baggage and Personal Effects cost very little and could save you a substantial sum in case of loss.

Drive carefully. We want you back.

ANDERSON-FRAZIER Insurance Agency, Inc.

Phone 777-3481

Second & Main HOPE, ARKANSAS

SOCIETY

Phone 777-4502 Mary Anita Laseler

Between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday thru Friday

Calendar of Events

Thursday, July 6
Chapter 328, Order of the Eastern Star, will have a stated meeting Thursday, July 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic Hall. There will be an initiation and refreshments.

The Golden Age Club regular meeting will be Thursday, July 6, at 1 p.m. in the Douglas Building. All members are urged to attend.

The Cora Mae WMA of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church will meet Thursday, July 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. M.L. Arterbury.

Sunday, July 9
The Harris-Stevenson Family Reunion will be held Sunday, July 9 at the Douglas Building, 720 Texas Street. Friends and relatives are invited to come and bring a covered dish for the noon meal.

Monday, July 10
Women's groups of the First United Methodist Church will meet Monday, July 10 at these times and homes:

Circle 1, 10 a.m., Mrs. Lloyd Spencer

Circle 2, 10 a.m., Mrs. L.L. Webb

Circle 3, 10 a.m., Mrs. David Waddle

Circle 4, 3 p.m., Mrs. Ed McCorkle

WSG 1, 7 p.m., Mrs. Norris Steele, potluck supper

The St. Hilda's Guild of St. Marks Episcopal Church will meet Monday, July 10, at 7 p.m. at Leonard House. Members are asked to bring soft cloths for brass cleaning.

Tuesday, July 11
Cub Scout Pack 62 will have a swimming party and an ice cream social at Fair Park Tuesday, July 11, beginning at 7 p.m.

Thursday, July 13
WSGS Circle 5, First United Methodist Church, will have a potluck supper Thursday, July 13, at 7 p.m. in the Douglas Building.

Coming, Going

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles F. Basye, Texarkana, Tex., were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Lasure at their new residence, 316 West Avenue G.

Relatives and friends attending the funeral for Mrs.

L.W. Young July 1 included these from out of town: Mrs. Susan Bemis and Jack Hyde of Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. L.A. Trome, Carlsbad, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Cox, Dallas; and Mrs. Louis Schneider, Little Rock.

I.A. and Mrs. Charles F. Batson and daughter, Wurzburg, West Germany, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batson and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Nunn of Little Rock before returning to Germany, where I.A. Batson is stationed with the 3rd Infantry Div., 7th Bn., 67th ADA.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willis and two children, St. Louis, are visiting Mrs. Frances Reynerson.

Mrs. G.B. Morris has returned home from Alabama, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Pressley and family in Muscle Shoals and attended the wedding of her granddaughter, Mary Jo Pressley, to David Mathews in Tuscaloosa June 24.

Mrs. Jim Robertson is entering St. Michael Hospital in Texarkana this week for surgery on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burton and Brad of Houston have returned home after a visit with their grandmother, Mrs. J.V. Moore, Sr. and mother, Mrs. Kenzie McKee, who have been in Hope for an extended stay.

Mrs. Beebe is shower honoree

Mrs. Tommy Beebe, nee Karen Kalba of Prescott, was feted with a miscellaneous bridal shower on July 29 in the home of Mrs. M.H. Peebles with cophostesses, Mesdames Charles Gunter, Lahroy Spates, Helen Hatch, Harold Hendrix, Ardell Clark, J.A. Collier, Lynton Crank, Robert Levins, Jerry Chambliss and James Tate.

The honoree wore white knit with navy accessories and had a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Charles Kalba of Prescott, mother of the bride and Mrs. W.C. Beebe, mother of the groom, each had a daisy corsage. Magnolia blossoms were seen at vantage points in the home.

The serving table was covered with lace over yellow nylon and centered with yellow roses. Frosted punch and petits fours were served. The honoree received many lovely and useful gifts.

Are blondes back in the White House to stay? Pat Nixon, Eleanor McGovern and Joan Kennedy.

A blonde in the White House

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Mrs. Richard M. Nixon may be the first White House blonde that most Americans remember. But there was another, back when, who charmed the country with her grace and flair for planning parties that were talked about a long time afterwards.

That was more than 100 years ago when bachelor James Buchanan took his niece with him when he went to Washington as president in 1857.

Violet-eyed Harriet Lane was 24 years old. She was already known for her beauty and charm. She had been the darling of Queen Victoria's court during her uncle's appointment as ambassador to England.

Perhaps it was the sprightly change from the gloom then settling over a nation that was moving toward a civil war. But whatever it was, Harriet had the right combination to charm her native land as thoroughly as she had enchanted England.

Orphaned at nine, she was a high-spirited tomboy when her uncle sent her off to convent schools. There she blossomed into a poised but witty beauty. She braided her long-golden tresses and wrapped them in a neat chignon on top of her head. She wore clothes that enhanced her lithe body. Her gracious entertaining earned her fame as a hostess.

History tells us that Harriet became as popular as Dolly Madison had been in her day. When Buchanan's term ended, there was praise for Harriet but little for her vacillating uncle who had been unable to act as the division between the states deepened.

Harriet married a few years later and went to live in Baltimore. But she never forgot her uncle. When she died, she left $100,000 in her will for a monument to him, which was finally erected in Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Nixon is the second blonde to set the pace of Washington society. And, unlike Harriet, she has a blonde reinforcement — her daughter Tricia. More—in this election year the wife of a leading contender to replace Mrs. Nixon's husband is also a blonde. Although of a different shade—Mrs. George McGovern. And then, there is blonde Joan Kennedy waiting in the wings.

Blondes are indeed back again in fashion and in the public eye. And it's odds on the First Lady for the next four years will be one.

Reader ignored slipped disc

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I always read your column and agree with you that it is dangerous to ignore a slipped disc. I know, because I went through it. I let mine go until I could not take the pain any more in the back and leg so I called my doctor and he put me in the hospital and

I had surgery on my back. But I let it go so long it damaged my leg and foot for life. My back is fine now but my leg on one side and my foot is numb. I had the operation 15 months ago.

Dear Reader—Thank you for your letter and it certainly serves as a good illustration of the problem. Whenever the small disc between the vertebrae protrudes in such a way as to cause mechanical pressure on any of the nerves, it needs correction. If pressure is applied too long on the spinal cord or nerves, it can cause permanent damage.

Of course, every case is different and there is no way the patient by himself can tell whether he is really damaging the nerve or not. But his doctor can tell. Thus it is very important that if the doctor advises that the time has come for disc surgery, you should go along with his recommendation without undue delay.

Your case also points up the importance of going to see your doctor early when symptoms of numbness in the leg or problems we commonly associate with slipped discs occur. Go see him in time that you can hope to recover without a numb leg or numb foot.

Dear Dr. Lamb—In an issue of the Home Medical Encyclopedia a doctor wrote that alopecia areata causing total baldness was usually psychogenic but hair may regrow when the emotion producing situation is controlled, or eliminated. Would you please explain this?

Dear Reader—The writer is referring to the observation that people can lose hair from being nervous. You can appreciate the fact that this is a vicious cycle—that once one begins to lose hair from nervousness he usually gets nervous because he's losing the hair. And so it goes. If the person can be reassured and the basic cause for tension resolved, the hair gradually grows back and the problem disappears.

This should not be confused with all the many other reasons for loss of hair. Hair loss can be a normal event in men. It can also be a normal event in women after childbirth and with increasing age. Of course, women often lose hair from some of their habits which include inappropriate use of hair cosmetics, pulling and biting the hair, teasing the hair and any other type of hair style that maintains tension or pulling on the hair itself. There is something to be said for today's natural girl with her loose natural hair.

(NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Do you have questions about the menopause? If so, you'll want to read Dr. Lamb's booklet in which he answers your questions about this subject. Send 50 cents to Dr. Lamb, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019. Ask for "Menopause" booklet.

Meat price warning is all too true

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
Consumers warned by supermarket officials to expect higher meat prices are finding the warning all too true.

An Associated Press survey of about two dozen cities shows that grocery bills — particularly for the better cuts of beef and for pork — have increased anywhere from a dime a pound on up in the two weeks since the latest warning was issued.

Cabinet officials scheduled a meeting in Washington today with officials of food chains and called in farmers for a Thursday session to help in preparing a food prices report that President Nixon has requested by July 10.

Shoppers, meanwhile, were issuing their own reports.

"The food prices are just terrible now," said a woman in a Seattle, Wash., supermarket. "I know how much the prices have gone up because I just started shopping regularly a year and a half ago when I was married."

"Prices are out of sight," said a man in a Kansas City store. "The very first thing the government should have done in its economic program was to put controls on food prices."

Supermarket executives warned consumers on June 16 to expect a rise in prices, particularly of meat. They said that wholesale costs have been going up and the retail outlets no longer could absorb the increase.

The AP checked prices in a dozen cities on June 16, then checked again two weeks later to see if there had been any change.

Among the findings: In Seattle, the prices of 10 items were checked. Five went up, one went down and four remained steady. Increases included veal round steak, which went from $2.25 to $2.39 a pound, and rib pork chops, up two cents to $1.09 a pound. Stable items included peanut butter crackers, fruit juices, cheese, mayonnaise, butter and milk.

In the Chicago suburb of La-Grange Park, pork loin end cut went from 79 to 85 cents a pound and jumbo eggs increased from 59 to 65 cents a dozen. Sirloin steak dropped from $1.59 to $1.39 cents a pound, but the manager said the decrease was temporary, due to a holiday special.

In Los Angeles, ground beef went from 73 to 78 cents a pound, sirloin tip steak from $1.49 to $1.67 a pound and a Swiss steak TV dinner from 63 to 67 cents. Items that were unchanged included round steak, chicken legs, russet potatoes, lettuce, onions, liquid cleaner and aluminum foil.

A store manager in Los Angeles said, "It's hard to tell what is happening to food prices because they go up and down continually. We do know that our prices are going up and our profits are going down."

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Sad Tale Of A Weekend Golfer

Dear Helen:
I'm very keen on golf. If I hadn't been an architect, I'd have tried it professionally. Every weekend I'm on the fairway before breakfast.

My wife hates the game. She's tried lessons. They didn't take, and when she comes with me she gets fidgety. The truth is, she isn't sporty. Her idea of a weekend is visiting friends, driving in the frantic traffic, or mooching round some historic ruin. I'd go crazy in these pursuits.

I'd like Joanie with me but if she doesn't like golf, I don't mind her doing what she enjoys. We both work hard during the week, and I don't think it's a federal crime to relax in your own way, even if it isn't your mate's way.

Now she's on to me about having a baby, but I know she just wants something to fill those weekends. All her friends have children so she feels she must too. I'm into my 40s and frankly not sure I really want children. Maybe I'll change, but Joanie is beginning to treat me like some kind of monster for being honest.

Don't suggest splitting weekends 50-50. They're short enough already and, anyway, I'd never force Joanie to spend half her weekends playing golf.

We've been married six years, Helen, but I'm not sure we'll make it to seven. Could you suggest an interest for my wife that would prevent a divorce? —TROUBLED GOLFERS

Dear T.G.:

Your wife doesn't want AN interest—she wants YOUR interest. (And I suspect she wants children so that you'll become a family man on weekends... which could lead to an even deeper rift if golf still came first.)

I suspect also that golf isn't your only problem. If you two have so little in common that you can't find a mutual interest (or adjust to each other's interests), don't expect children to be that common denominator.

...And if you can't compromise, don't expect a long and happy marriage. —H.

Dear Helen:

"Blamed Unfairly," the white who says blacks blame her for what her ancestors did, has a point. I think equality is the only way to go.

But—I wish she could get inside my black skin.

Whites are conditioned to fear blacks. When we meet in business or when whites know us personally or through association, everything's cool. But if B.U. was walking along a deserted street, and a black appeared, that black would see fear in her eyes.

An example: I was driving my car in a mixed neighborhood, predominantly white—one of those newly "integrated" deals. I saw a little boy up on a tall roof, crying. He was scared and about to fall. So I knocked on the door, heard someone inside, even saw a white face peer around the kitchen window, but the woman wouldn't show. I yelled. She called the police, who arrived as I was trying to help the boy down. I had a hard time convincing everybody I wasn't breaking into the house!

Would this have happened if my skin wasn't the "wrong" color? —NORTHERN BLACK MAN

Dear Helen:

All blacks do not blame all whites for what some do, and whites shouldn't feel guilty if their consciences are clear, but there's a lot of blame going down on both sides. Perhaps this generation will end it.

I have friends of all colors, and I don't think of their color first, or even second or third. In fact, I'm pretty sure my children don't even SEE the color of their friends' skins. Thank God for that! —COLOR BLIND

On the Road in Arkansas

JULY

1st 2 weeks — Inspiration Point Opera — Eureka Springs
5-7 — ASGA State Junior Medal Play, Hot Springs
12-15 — Miss Arkansas Pageant — Hot Springs
22 — Parkin Horse Show, Northeast Central Ark. Horse Show Assoc. — Parkin
No Date — Rodeo — Fordyce
No Date — Sacred Concert, Marjorie Lawrence's Summer Opera Workshop, Extension of Southern Ill. University, First United Methodist Church — Hot Springs

No Date — Concert of Operatic excerpts by Summer Opera Workshop, Arlington Hotel Ballroom — Hot Springs
No Date — Ouachita Valley Invit. Golf Tour. — Camden
No Date — Circle C Rodeo — Camden
No Date — 24th Annual Mt. Nebo Chicken Fry — Dardanelle
No Date — Boat Races, Calion Lake — Calion

No Date — Union Co. Rodeo — El Dorado
No Date — Hillbilly Show every nite except Saturday and Sunday going through August — Eureka Springs
No Date — Miss Twin Lakes Pageant — Mt. Home
No Date — Riding Club Rodeo — Murfreesboro
No Date — Annual Rodeo — Paris

For additional information on annual events where dates have not been set, write direct to Chamber of Commerce of city involved or to: Parks and Tourism Department, 149 State Capitol, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201.

Saenger THEATRE

TONITE

"HOUSE THAT DRIPPED BLOOD"

AND

"CRYPT"

STARTS THURSDAY

DIXIE DRIVE-IN CLOSED TONITE
OPENS THURSDAY WITH
BEWARE OF BLOOD

Feather Your Nest

With Our Guaranteed

6%

Savings Certificates

Hope Federal

Savings & Loan Association

BANKAMERICARD

BUTTONS 'N BOWS

Ultra feminine, 100% polyester Ultressa crepe with slit skirt, little buttons and a big bow. Gold top with tangerine or brown print skirt. Sizes 8-20

$36

Lillian Russell

Coffee honors Miss Royston

An informal morning coffee for bride-elect Miss Margie Royston, was given Saturday, July 1 in the home of Mrs. A.L. Page with Mrs. Joe Hankins, co-hostess.

Miss Royston was attired in a red and white ensemble and wore a corsage of daisies. Similar flowers were presented to her mother, Mrs. G.D. Royston, Jr. and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Joe B. Scruggs, Sr. of Little Rock.

Guests were served from a table centered with an arrangement of daisies. Refreshments were coffee, doughnuts, and an assortment of sweet snacks. An electric appliance was presented to the guest of honor by the hostesses.

Bridge winners

A local Friday Bridge Club met on June 30 in the home of Mrs. C.C. Lewis. When scores were tallied, Mrs. H.C. Whitworth was high. The club members were served frosted cold drinks for refreshments.

Trout as large as 35 pounds have been caught in Argentine lakes and rivers, says Argentine Airlines.

Employment on increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Employment in Arkansas increased during April in nonagricultural business, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported Tuesday.

Gains primarily were in manufacturing, construction, finance and services.

Nonagricultural employment rose 5.2 per cent over March 1972 and rose more than 12 per cent over April of 1971. The BLS reported that payroll employment in the state now stands at 549,800 persons.

Attention, women's lib
SEATTLE (UPI) — There's an old ordinance on this city's books that makes it against the law for a woman to "habitually drink" with men in taverns. On the other hand, there is no law forbidding men to drink habitually with women.

Spassky calls conduct insulting; apology by Bobby follows

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer
REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — The world championship chess match between Bobby Fischer and Boris Spassky now is scheduled to start Thursday afternoon following another postponement, this one demanded by the Soviet champion.

After holding out for more money and getting it, the American challenger came to Iceland for the postponed opening match Tuesday. But Spassky walked out of the noon drawing to decide who would move first because Fischer was not present. He had sent his second, a Roman Catholic priest.

Officials announced a new 48-hour postponement of the opener, originally scheduled for last Sunday. They hoped both players would be ready to meet on Thursday.

Fischer arrived in Reykjavik early Tuesday. The Icelandic Chess Federation had rejected his demand for 30 per cent of the gate receipts, but he agreed to come after a London investment banker doubled the $125,000 purse which he and Spassky will divide.

The 29-year-old American grandmaster was resting from the overnight flight in a guarded villa at the edge of town when Spassky counterattacked in the hotel department.

The 35-year-old Soviet champion read a prepared statement calling the American's conduct insulting and intolerable. It said Fischer, by refusing to appear at the opening ceremony last weekend, had insulted Spassky personally and the Soviet Chess Federation and had jeopardized his right to play for the title. The statement demanded that Fischer be punished.

However, Max Euwe, president of the international federation, said the Soviets had not formally requested punishment. "What should I do?" he asked. "Put him in the corner?"

Fischer was staying away from newsmen and did not comment on the Soviet statement.

With the contribution from the London banker, James D. Slater, the winner is to get $156,250 and the loser $93,750. In addition, each player will get another $75,000 from the television and film rights.

Bobby Fischer

Pearson drives Merc to split-second victory

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
"It reminded me of Kansas City last year," said Don Shula, coach of the Miami Dolphins. "That was when we went three overtimes to beat the Chiefs in the National Football League playoffs."

Shula was the grand marshal for Tuesday's Firecracker 400-mile Stock Car Race at Daytona International Speedway. It was the first time he had watched one of the auto racing spectacles.

He couldn't have picked a better time to be indoctrinated into the world of speed.

Like 67,200 other sweating, sun-drenched spectators, he stood and cheered as 37-year-old David Pearson drove a Mercury to a split-second victory over Dodge's Richard Petty and Chevrolet's Bobby Allison after 400 miles of 180 mile-an-hour dueling.

Pearson finished half a car length ahead of Petty and another length in front of Allison, averaging 160.821 miles an hour for the distance. Clifton "Coo-Coo" Marlin was fourth in a Chevrolet and James Hylton fifth in a Ford.

Elsewhere during the long Fourth of July weekend, 1971 world champion Jackie Stewart won the French Grand Prix as Emerson Fittipaldi of Brazil, the current championship points leader, came in second and Chris Amon of New Zealand third.

For the fourth time in five races in the Trans-American Sedan Championship, George Follmer of Arcadia, Calif., drove an American Motors Javelin home in first place in the 200-mile race at Donnybrook Speedway in Brainerd, Minn.

And Vince Gimondo, a balding, 41-year-old part-time racer from Orlando, Fla., won the Paul Revere After-Midnight Race for Sports Sedans at Daytona Beach.

Gimondo's Camaro set a record average speed of 104.293 m.p.h. for the 250 miles over Daytona's 3.81-mile road course.

Tom Nehl was second and Jimmy Capps third, both also driving Camaros.

The Firecracker at Daytona, a $105,000 mid-season stop on the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing's Grand National trial, started out as a seven-car battle.

Among the front runners for the first 100 miles were pole sitter Bobby Isaac, who had qualified his Dodge at 186.277 mph; Petty's teammate Buddy Baker in a Dodge, and 28-year-old Pete Hamilton, a big winner two years ago and making a comeback this year in a Plymouth he helped build.

But all three dropped out with mechanical problems before the halfway point, leaving Pearson, Petty and Allison to carry on the tooth-and-nail struggle.

Pearson was paid $15,150 for Tuesday's victory. Petty's second-place payoff of $9,225 pushed him past Allison in the money ranks with $121,360 against $120,210.

Follmer won despite a gearbox stuck in fourth gear, managing to complete the 200 miles in barely over two hours—and just 28 seconds in front of the Mustang driven by Jerry Thompson of Clawson, Mich. Follmer averaged 97.88 mph.

And in London on Tuesday, Stewart said he was pulling out of the Canadian-American series on doctor's orders and cutting the rest of his racing program for the year in half. Stewart won the French Grand Prix on Sunday after being idle for a month due to a duodenal ulcer.

Travelers win 7-0

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers and the El Paso Dodgers divided a Texas League doubleheader here Tuesday with the Travelers taking the first game 7-0 and the Dodgers the second 5-0.

The Travelers sprayed 11 hits in the opener to back the strong pitching of Bob Forsch. Included was Alan Putz' 10th homer of the year.

Jackie Stripling, who suffered a shoulder injury, was the loser in the second game.

Colwell wins Tucson Open

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Paul Colwell, a 23-year-old airman stationed at Tucson, crashed through to his first professional victory Tuesday night in the $40,000 Tucson Open Bowling Tournament.

The handsome righthander was fourth when the third and final eight-game block of match play began, trailing leader Nelson Burton Jr., St. Louis, Mo., by 60 pins.

When Colwell took seven of his matches, including a last-game 234-222 triumph over Don Johnson, a 19-time champion from Akron, Ohio, he rolled to the $4,000 victory.

Colwell's gross pinfall for the 42-game event, including 510 bonus pins, 30 for each of his 15 match game wins, was 9,915. Johnson, who finished as the runnerup for a second straight week, earned $2,200 as he showed 14 victories.

Third place and $1,500 went to Curt Schmidt, Ft. Wayne, Ind., while Roy Buckley, Columbus, Ohio, and Burton wound up fourth and fifth, respectively.

Braves-Cubs rained out, Leo files formal protest

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
It rained all over Denny McLain's parade but the moisture left Leo Durocher a lot more upset than it did Atlanta's newest resident.

McLain, making his National League debut, was tied 3-3 in the eighth inning Tuesday night as the Braves tried to sweep a baseball doubleheader from the Durocher's Cubs. Atlanta had taken the opener 5-1.

Jose Cardenal, who had homered off McLain earlier, and Don Kessinger opened the Chicago eighth with singles and suddenly, Denny had runners on first and third with none out.

Just as suddenly, the Atlanta skies opened up with an enormous downpour. The rain hit so swiftly that the ground crew was unable to get the tarps down over the infield.

Soon, it was a swamp and the game had to be called, rescuing McLain from a precarious situation and leaving Durocher rather agitated.

Leo decided that the Braves' ground crew didn't move quite as fast as it might have if the two runners on base were wearing Atlanta uniforms and formally protested the rainout.

National League President Chub Feeney said he would give careful consideration to the protest and ruled that the game could not be rescheduled until he ruled on it.

Elsewhere in the NL Tuesday, New York split a doubleheader with San Diego, winning the opener 2-0 on Tom Seaver's one-hitter, but dropping the nightcap 4-2, Cincinnati dropped St. Louis 6-1, Philadelphia edged San Francisco 2-1, Montreal slugged Los Angeles 7-3 and Houston shut out Pittsburgh 6-0.

In the American League, Boston shut out Minnesota 2-0, Cleveland blanked Texas 2-0, Kansas City shut out Detroit 1-0, Baltimore nipped Chicago 2-1, Milwaukee dropped California 4-2 and Oakland took New York 4-2.

A crowd of 50,597 showed at Atlanta Stadium for a gigantic July 4 fireworks display and McLain's debut. They gave Denny an ear-shattering standing ovation as he walked out to the mound to start the second game.

"I've never experienced anything like that," said McLain, "not even in Detroit. This tonight was unbelievable. I could have got the saints in heaven in that first inning after that."

All he had to do was get the Cubs of Chicago and for three innings, he did that easily.

The Cubs started nibbling away at McLain in the middle three innings and by the eighth, he had given up nine hits, the last two to Cardenal and Kessinger.

The Braves won the first game of the doubleheader, scoring four runs in the seventh inning on homers by Paul Casanova and Mike Lum to crack a 1-1 tie.

Casanova opened the inning with his first NL homer and Lum added a three-run shot as Ron Reed picked up the victory, scattering seven hits.

Seaver took a no-hitter into the ninth inning and retired the first San Diego batter before Leron Lee cracked a broken bat single for the Padres' only hit.

"It was a good pitch," said Seaver, "down and in, but it came back over the plate a little bit. I was certainly disappointed. No doubt about that. But my immediate thoughts were that Nate Colbert was coming up."

Seaver got Colbert on a game-ending double play but the Padres' slugger did hit one out in the eighth inning of the second game to tie it at 2-2. Then Derrell Thomas' ninth-in-

Ruth White is fencing champ

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP) — Ruth White, a New York University senior from Baltimore, is the U.S. women's fencing champion for the second time.

Miss White regained the championship Tuesday night. The 20-year-old co-ed won 22 of 23 matches in winning the title easily and gaining a U.S. Olympic berth.

Bannister captures trials

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — They call it a "little club of ours" and they refer to the members as they would loved ones.

It's the rugged, grueling, two-day-ten-event test known as the decathlon—the event Jeff Bannister calls his own today.

Bannister, a graduate of New Hampshire who stands 6 feet 3 and weighs 150 pounds less than his normal 200 today, captured the U.S. Olympic Trials decathlon Tuesday with 8,120 points, the top total in the world this year. He conquered 97-degree heat as well as little Jeff Bennett of the Army.

Bennett, with 8,076, and Bruce Jenner, a longshot from Iowa, with 7,846, also made the U.S. team which goes to Munich this summer for the 20th Olympic Games.

"I just wanted to get on the team. It's been a long wait," said a champagne-drenched Bannister after completing the final event, the 1,500-meter run.

Bannister was asked about his own performance but preferred to soak in glowing terms of his competitors.

Seagren sheds tears of joy

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Tears streamed down Bob Seagren's face. The handsome Olympic champion sat in the light of a setting sun and simply, quietly cried.

He had just set the world record in the pole vault, something he had done four times previously. So why the emotion?

The 25-year-old Southern California Strider athlete suffered a severe knee injury in a horseback riding accident late last year and surgery was performed. He came back, however, and made what appeared to many a futile attempt to get back into shape for the 20th Olympic Games this year. His progress was slow.

"He worked so hard," said Verne Wolfe, head track coach at the University of Southern California, where Seagren was graduated and began his comeback. "He's always been dedicated, but I really didn't think he'd come back this fast."

Hope Star Sports

Major league roundup

Today's Baseball By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS National League

	East	W. L.	Pct.	G.B.
Pittsburgh	43	26	.623	—
New York	43	26	.606	1
Chicago	37	33	.529	6½
St. Louis	36	34	.520	6½
Montreal	31	39	.443	12½
Philadelphia	25	45	.352	19
	West	W. L.	Pct.	G.B.
Cincinnati	44	28	.611	—
Houston	44	29	.603	½
Los Angeles	36	35	.507	7½
Atlanta	33	38	.465	10½
San Francisco	31	47	.397	16
San Diego	25	47	.347	19

Monday's Results Philadelphia 4, San Francisco 2

Pittsburgh 3, Chicago 2
St. Louis 4, Cincinnati 1
Atlanta 13, Houston 9
New York at Montreal, 2, rain

Only games scheduled
Tuesday's Results
Cincinnati 6, St. Louis 1
New York 2-2, San Diego 0-4
San Francisco 2, Philadelphia 1

Montreal 7, Los Angeles 3
Houston 6, Pittsburgh 0
Atlanta 5-3, Chicago 1-3, 2nd game, 7½ innings, tie, rain

Wednesday's Games
San Francisco (Bryant 6-4) at Philadelphia (Reynolds 0-4), N
Los Angeles (Osteen 7-6) at Montreal (Moore 0-2), N
Chicago (Jenkins 9-7) at Atlanta (Niekro 7-7), N
San Diego (Arlin 7-8) at New York (Matlack 8-4), N
Pittsburgh (Ellis 7-4) at Houston (Forsch 4-2), N

Only games scheduled
Thursday's Games
Los Angeles at Montreal, N
Chicago at Atlanta, N
Pittsburgh at Houston, N
Only games scheduled
American League

	East	W. L.	Pct.	G.B.
Baltimore	38	30	.559	—
Detroit	37	31	.544	1
Boston	32	34	.485	5
New York	31	35	.470	6
Cleveland	28	39	.418	9½
Milwaukee	27	40	.403	10½
	West	W. L.	Pct.	G.B.
Oakland	46	24	.657	—
Chicago	41	29	.586	5
Minnesota	36	33	.522	9½
Kansas City	34	35	.493	11½
California	32	40	.444	15
Texas	29	41	.414	17

Monday's Results
Texas 2, Kansas City 1
Boston 8, Minnesota 2
Baltimore 15, Detroit 3
Oakland 5, California 0

Tuesday's Results

Cleveland 2, Texas 0
Boston 2, Minnesota 0
Kansas City 1, Detroit 0
Baltimore 2, Chicago 1
Milwaukee 4, California 2
Oakland 4, New York 2
Wednesday's Games
Baltimore (McNally 8-7) at Chicago (Wood 12-8)
Minnesota (J. Perry 6-7) at Boston (Pattin 4-8), N
Texas (Gogolewski 3-6) at Cleveland (G. Perry 12-7), N
Detroit (Lolich 13-5) at Kansas City (Spittorf 7-4), N
New York (Kline 6-3) at Oakland (Holtzman 11-5), N
Milwaukee (Stephenson 2-0 or Parsons 6-7) at California (Ryan 9-3), N

Thursday's Games
Baltimore at Chicago, N
Texas at Cleveland, N
Detroit at Kansas City, N
New York at Oakland
Milwaukee at California, N
Only games scheduled
today's Major League Leaders
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

AMERICAN LEAGUE

BATTING (165 at bats)—Scheiblum, KC, .331; Piniella, KC, .314.
RUNS—Harper, Ben, 47; Rudi, Oak, 46.
RUNS BATTED IN—D. Allen, Chi, 54; C. May, Chi, 44; Mayberry, KC, 44.
HITS—Rudi, Oak, 84; Piniella, KC, 82.
DOUBLES—Rudi, Oak, 17; Flisk, Ben, 16.
TRIPLES—Blair, Bal, 6; Rudi, Oak, 6; Flisk, Ben, 5.
HOME RUNS—D. Allen, Chi, 15; R. Jackson, Oak, 15; Cash, Det, 14.

STOLEN BASES—Campaneris, Oak, 21; D. Nelson, Tex, 21.
PITCHING (7 Decisions)—Kaat, Min, 10-2, .833, 2.22
Odom, Oak, 6-2, .750, 2.34.
STRIKEOUTS—Lolich, Det, 120; N. Ryan, Cal, 114.
NATIONAL LEAGUE
BATTING (165 at bats)—Cedeno, Htn, .341; Sanguillen, Pgh, .335.
RUNS—Morgan, Cin, 70; Bonds, SF, 53.
RUNS BATTED IN—Bench, Cin, 61; Kingman, SF, 53.
HITS—Brock, StL, 99; Garr, Atl, 95.
DOUBLES—Bonds, SF, 20; Cedeno, Htn, 18.
TRIPLES—Brock, StL, 8; Santo, Chi, 7.
HOME RUNS—Bench, Cin, 21; Kingman, SF, 20.
STOLEN BASES—Morgan, Cin, 32; Brock, StL, 27.
PITCHING (7 Decisions)—Nolan, Cin, 11-2, .846, 1.90
Blas, Pgh, 9-2, .818, 2.67.
STRIKEOUTS—Carlton, Phi, 166; Seaver, NY, 107.

Orioles move into 1st place with 2-1 victory

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Three comeback pitchers, two rookies and one 20-game winner kept the July 4 fireworks to a minimum in the American League Tuesday.

—Pat Dobson, one of Baltimore's four 2-game winners last season, hurled the Orioles into sole possession of first place in the American League East with a three-hit, 11-strikeout 2-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

—Detroit skidded into second place when Kansas City's Roger Nelson, fighting back from two years of arm miseries, blanked the Tigers 1-0 on four hits for his first complete game and first triumph as a starter since 1969.

—Rookie Lynn McGlothen notched his first major league triumph with a three-hitter that propelled Boston past Minnesota 2-0.

—Oakland's Blue Moon Odom, recuperating from a 1971 elbow operation, posted his sixth victory with eight-inning help from Darold as the A's downed the New York Yankees 4-2.

—Jim Lonborg, the AL's Cy Young Award winner with Boston in 1967 but a much-injured hurler since, won his fourth straight baseball game for Milwaukee, blanking California until the ninth when Frank Linzy came on to preserve a 4-2 triumph.

—Cleveland rookie Dick Tidrow took over for the injured Mike Kilkenny in the third inning and completed a 2-0 shutout over Texas.

In the National League, Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 6-1, Houston blanked Pittsburgh 6-0, the New York Mets shaded San Diego 2-0 but dropped the nightcap 4-2, Montreal trimmed Los Angeles 7-3, San Francisco edged Philadelphia 2-1 and Atlanta turned back the Chicago Cubs 5-1 before the second game was halted by rain in the eighth inning tied at 3-3.

Baltimore's Dobson surrendered a first-inning home run to Dick Allen and second-innings singles to Rick Reichardt and Mike Andrews but kept the White Sox hitless thereafter.

The Orioles tied the game against Stan Bahnsen in the fifth on Bobby Grich's single and Dave Johnson's triple and scored the winning run in the sixth on consecutive singles by Paul Blair, Boog Powell and Merv Rettenmund.

Kansas City got Nelson the only run he needed against Detroit in the first inning on Amos Otis' bunt single, a stolen base and John Mayberry's infield hit, which loser Bill Slayback threw wild to first base.

Boston's McGlothen, a 22-year-old right-hander, held the Twins to Eric Soderholm's double in the second inning and singles by Danny Thompson in the third. Rookie shortstop Juan Beniquez accounted for one of the runs off loser Ray Corbin with his first major league homer.

About the only fireworks were in Oakland, where Sal Bando hampered a grand slam home run off New York's Mel Stottlemyre in the fourth inning and the A's put on a gaudy pyrotechnic display after the game.

Bando's seventh home run of the season and fifth career grand slam followed Joe Rudi's, double and walks to Mike Epstein and Bill Voss.

Milwaukee's Lonborg lost his shutout when California's Bob Oliver socked a two-run homer in the ninth but Linzy came on to nail down the triumph. The Brewers pushed across the decisive runs in the ninth on bases-loaded walks to Ron Theobald and Joe Lahoud.

Cleveland's Kilkenny suffered a split middle finger on his pitching hand fielding Ted Kubiak's smash in the third inning but Tidrow came on finish the shutout of the Rangers for his first win since May 17. John Lowenstein provided the offense with a two-run homer.

Goolagong wins match against Chris Evert

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Defending champion Evonne Goolagong of Australia defeated 17-year-old Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., 4-6, 63, 6-4 today for the right to meet Billie Jean King in Friday's final for the Wimbledon tennis crown.

Mrs. King, the No. 2 seed from Long Beach, Calif., crushed Rosemary Casals of San Francisco 6-2, 6-4 in the first women's singles match on the grass center court.

Evonne reeled off the seventh game in a row when she held service at the start of the final set to love. But then Chris held her and broke Evonne to go 2-1 up as the Australian lapsed back into loose play with a double fault, a volley at the net and another weak backhand. But the lapse was only momentary and Evonne broke back to 2-2 after Chris double-faulted.

Chris was still fighting and produced two superb passing forehands and a flat return of service to break Evonne again and go ahead 3-2. Then the match broke sawed once more as Evonne broke back—the fourth break in a row—with a forehand volley. That put the score at 3-3. Then Evonne held service to lead 4-3—but only with the help of a lucky volley that hit the cord and ran along the net before dropping on Chris' side. Chris had fought hard to keep that game and twice pulled back to deuce.

The match lasted one hour, 35 minutes.

Bob Silver wins hill climb race

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Bob Silver ran his Camaro off the twisting mountain road twice but couldn't even remember where after winning Tuesday's running of the annual Pikes Peak Hill Climb.

The Colorado Springs racer, in his second year at the hill climb, credited the independent rear suspension on his 1972 stock car for the victory. He completed the 12.42 bumpy miles in 13:45.9, just five seconds off Bobby Unser's record 1969 pace.

Second was Bill Daniels of Colorado Springs, timed in 14:00.4 in a 1971 Chevrolet, and third in a 1969 Chevelle was Ralph Bruning of Lawton, Okla., in 14:05.4.

Solunar Tables

The schedule of Solunar Periods, as printed below, has been taken from Richard Alden Knight's SOLUNAR TABLES. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

Date		A.M.		P.M.
July	Day	Minor	Major	Minor	Major
5	Wednesday	12:20	6:55	12:50	7:30
6	Thursday	1:05	7:45	1:35	8:15
7	Friday	1:55	8:30	2:30	9:10
8	Saturday	2:40	9:35	3:25	10:10
9	Sunday	3:45	10:35	4:25	11:05

Warning issued on detergents

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some nonphosphate detergents on the market can cause irreversible blindness if accidentally rubbed into the eye, according to an unpublished government study.

UAW official leaning to McGovern

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock said Tuesday he could support either Sen. George McGovern or Sen. Hubert Humphrey for the Democratic presidential nomination but was "leaning" toward McGovern.

Woodcock, who originally endorsed Maine Sen. Edmund Muskie for the nomination, said his statement could not be construed as an endorsement.

"I could gladly support either one Humphrey or McGovern," Woodcock said. "It looks as if McGovern is going to get it."

Woodcock also called for the return to McGovern of 151 California delegates taken from him by the party's Credentials Committee and distributed among his eight opponents in that primary.

The committee set aside California's winner-take-all system and left McGovern, who originally took all 271 delegates with under 50 per cent of the vote, with 120.

"I am simply reacting to the immoral action of the Credentials Committee in taking away 151 California votes ... from McGovern," Woodcock said.

"The results of this study indicate the rather sharp demarcation between moderate ocular damage caused by soap in phosphate detergents and the intense causticity of carbonates and metasilicates," the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences concluded.

The Food and Drug Administration, charged with protecting the public from hazardous substances, has reacted to the report with disdain.

"They are treading outside the realm in which they should be operating," said an official in FDA's Bureau of Product Safety. "We have the charter, we have the mandate."

The official asked not to be named, because he said it would violate protocol to criticize a "sister agency."

The institute's study, conducted by Dr. David P. Rall, the director, said NIH veterinarians Dr. Donald B. Feldman and John A. Moore, concentrated on nine synthetic-detergent products purchased near its Triangle Park, N.C., facilities.

Seven were laundry products, of which three contained phosphates (Tide, Ajax, and Dash); two contained carbonate (Sears, and Arm and Hammer), one had metasilicate (Ecolo-G); and one was a soap powder (Ivory Snow). Two were dishwashing compounds, one containing metasilicate (Electro-Sol), and one with phosphate (Cascade).

Material was put into the left eyes of New Zealand white rabbits and reactions were recorded at one, two, three, seven and 14 days.

Riot follows 4th fireworks display

HERMOSA BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Hundreds of youths who had been watching a fireworks display battled police with rocks and bottles for about four hours Tuesday night and early today.

At least four policemen were injured, none seriously, 12 persons were arrested and several expensive beach front homes were damaged in this Los Angeles suburb, police said.

Several police cars also were reported damaged in the melee.

"It looks like a battlefield down there," said Wally Moore, spokesman for the Hermosa Beach police department. Another officer said the beach was covered with broken glass and added, "You couldn't walk barefooted anywhere in the area."

Moore said the beach homes, many of them in the $100,000 class, had picture windows broken and other damage.

Moore gave this account: Three Hermosa Beach policemen went to investigate a complaint about a loud band on the beach. They were greeted by rocks and bottles from a crowd of several thousand youths watching a fireworks display.

The officers called for assistance. Police from the surrounding cities of Hawthorne, El Segundo, Torrance, Gardena, Manhattan Beach and Redondo Beach arrived with sheriff's deputies to break up the rioters.

Those arrested were booked for investigation of assault on an officer and others charges, Moore said.

Subsidy checks mailed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government subsidy checks totaling $1.1 billion are being mailed to 955,000 farmers as part payment for cooperating in acreage set-aside programs for feed grain, wheat and cotton this year.

Officials said most eligible farmers should have their checks by the end of July.

Eventually, including final settlements later on, the payments will total a record $3.7 billion in compensation to farmers, the department said today.

Local announcements of the preliminary payments also are being made by county officers of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, officials said.

Hope Star

Wednesday, July 5, 1972
Vol. 73—No. 224

Star of Hope 1899; Press 1927
Consolidated January 18, 1929

Published every week - day evening at The Star Building, 212-14 S. Walnut St., Hope, Ark. 71801. P.O. Box 648. Telephone: Area 501; Hope 777-3431.

By STAR PUBLISHING CO.
Alex. H. Washburn, President and Editor

(In memoriam: Paul H. Jones, Managing Editor 1929-72)

Editorial—George S. Smith, Managing Editor
Mrs. Rebecca Lazenby, Reporter
Mary Anita Laseter, Society Editor
Mrs. Esther Hicks, Negro Community

Advertising—Donal Parker, Advertising Manager
Mrs. Wanda Powell, Assistant

Mrs. Sibyl Parsons, Classified

Circulation—C. M. Rogers, Jr., Circulation Manager
Mrs. Alice Kate Baker, Bookkeeper

General Bookkeeper—Virginia Hiscott

Mechanical Department—Billy Dan Jones, Mechanical Superintendent and Head Pressman
D. E. Allen, Head Camera-man and Pressman
George Smith, Jr., Pressman

Composing Room—Mrs. Jo Ann Arnett, Foreman; Judy Gray, Mrs. Betty Bain, Mrs. Mary C. Harris, Janice Miller, Mrs. Janet Smith, Mrs. Emily Gunter, Alternate

Second-class postage paid at Hope, Ark.
Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations

Member of the Associated Press. The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for republication of all the local news printed in this newspaper, as well as all AP news dispatches.

Member of the Southern Newspaper Publishers Ass'n. and the Arkansas Press Ass'n. National advertising representatives:

Arkansas Dailies, Inc., 3387 Poplar Av., Memphis, Tenn., 38111; 9600 Hartford Bldg., Dallas, Texas 75201; 360 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60601; 60 E. 42nd St., New York, N.Y. 10017; 1275 Penobscot Bldg., Detroit, Mich. 48226; 683 Skirvin Tower, Oklahoma City, Okla. 73102.

An 11-hit attack, including a home run by Al Putz, propelled Arkansas to its victory as the Travelers' Bob Forsch held El Paso to seven base knocks. Another seven-hit mound performance by the El Paso Sun Dodgers' Wayne Miller stood up for his second victory against one loss in the second game.

Memphis jumped on Midland relief pitcher Clint Compton in the eighth inning for a come-from-behind triumph. Ron Diggle, who socked a solo homer earlier, lined a bases-loaded single in the Blues' four-run rally. Righthander Bob Apodaca, now 5-5, relieved in the sixth frame to claim the decision.

Thor Skogan set San Antonio down on two hits as Shreveport coasted to victory in their first game despite a home run by the losers' Geno Marianna. In the nightcap, Sam Ashford's two-run homer for the Captains wasn't enough to overcome the Brewers' early lead.

There's a change of scenery tonight with Alexandria at San Antonio, Memphis at El Paso, Shreveport at Amarillo and Arkansas at Midland.

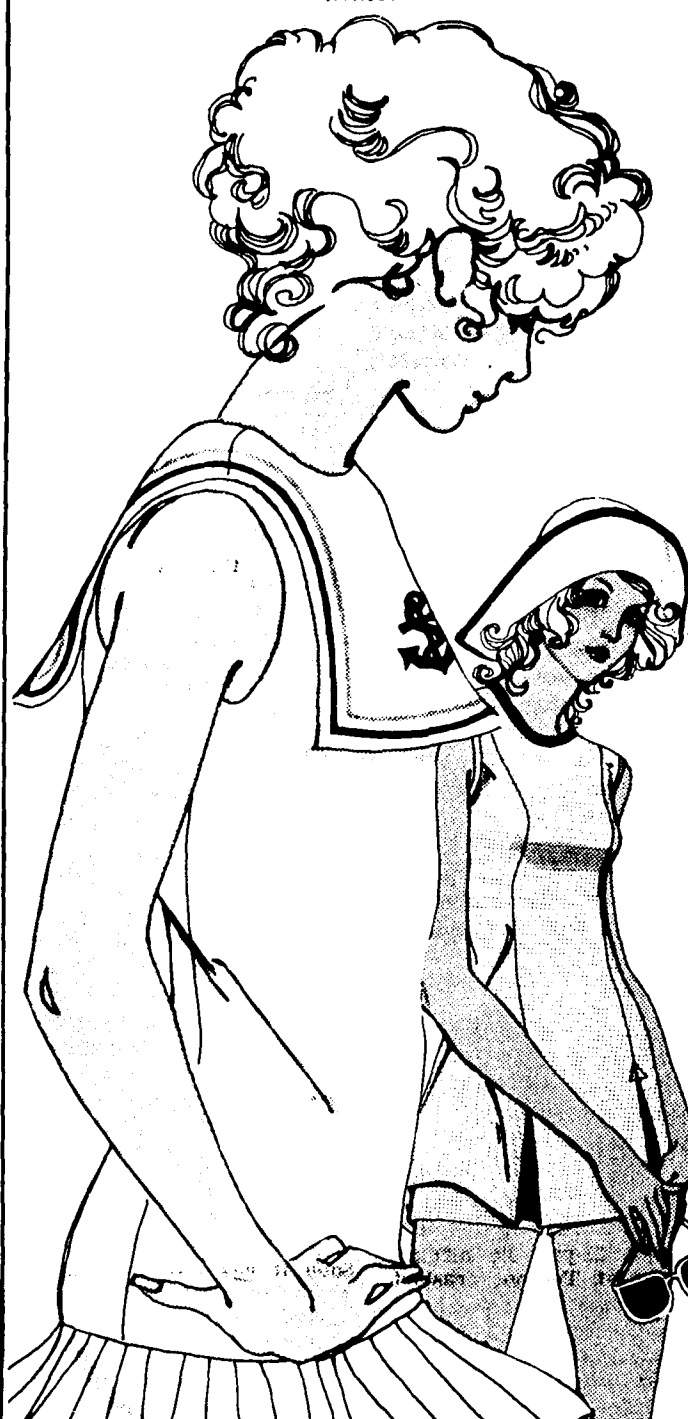

A terrarium is a container for plants with glass tops

Clearance

Hurry. There's plenty of summer left.

Closeout tennis dresses. Now 4.99.

Orig. $15. Polyester tennis dresses in Junior and Missy styles. A great collection to finish the hot summer days. Great in white.

Special 4⁸⁸

Fashion uniforms at a price scaled to a working girl's budget. All in self-sufficient knits of nylon/polyester, not only in white, but blue, aqua, maize, and pink. Sizes for junior petites, juniors, misses', half sizes. Buy them by the closet-full.

David Graham wins Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The sun actually came out twice during the $150,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament.

Once it popped out right after officials, surveying the Tanglewood Country Club's flooded 6,907 yards, called off Thursday's opening round.

Then, a second time, it emerged to smile on David Graham of Australia when he collected his trophy and $30,000 check for outlasting Bruce Devlin of Coral Gables, Fla., on the second sudden death playoff hole.

Aside from that, you could forget it. The weatherman played only one note all week — rain.

But the weather wasn't the only marvel about the 1972 Cleveland Open.

In the first place, Graham, 26-year-old pro from Sydney, was winning his first tournament, the first rookie to do so this year.

And he won it from his best friend. Neither Graham nor Devlin could quite make up their minds whether they were pleased or distressed.

Both finished the regulation 72 holes at 278, six strokes under par.

Devlin gave away the tournament on the 18th hole by missing a six-footer that could have given him a birdie and 277. Then he went out on the first hole of the sudden death and missed a three-foot par putt that gave Graham the chance for the title on the second sudden death hole.

It was a wierd tournament from the time it didn't get started Thursday until it had gone 74 holes.

Rod Curl of Redding, Calif., and Bobby Nichols of Akron, Ohio, reported at one point Monday they couldn't see the sixth green from the sixth tee.

The Cleveland Open had acquired a new handicap—fog.

Tom Weiskopf of Bedford, Ohio, lifted an iron to a boggy green and had trouble finding the ball. It buried until only the top was visible.

"I feel like I've been here a month," said Larry Hinson of Beach Mountain, N.C., who captured third place money after leading the tournament the first three days.

"The first tournament I won was at New Orleans and I didn't work half as hard as I worked for this one."

There was a great trade in used golf equipment. Graham won with a set of clubs he bought off Arnold Palmer with a used putter. Devlin came in second with a putter that a Cleveland plumbing firm gives away to customers.

Aces outlasts Amarillo

Alexandria's Aces outlasted Amarillo 1-0 in a 14-inning marathon Tuesday night and completed a five-game series sweep which tightened the Louisiana club's new hold on the Texas League East lead.

Amarillo, also beaten 3-2 in the first half of a doubleheader, at the same time toppled from the West Division lead, giving way to El Paso, which traded shutouts with the Arkansas Travelers. The Little Rock team beat El Paso 7-0 in their opener and the Sun Dodgers retaliated 5-0 in the nightcap.

Shreveport's Captains and the San Antonio Brewers divided another twin bill, the Captains winning 7-1 and the Texas club taking the afterpiece 6-4. The Memphis Blues bested Midland 6-4 in a single game.

A triple off the right centerfield wall by John Grubb in the 14th inning won the nightcap at Alexandria as the Amarillo cutoff man heaved his outfielder's throw into the Texas team's dugout. Grubb took an extra base for the lone run.

Doubles by Randy Elliott and John Scott drove in two first-inning tallies for the Aces in the opener and an Elliott single sent another home in the fifth to win the Alexandria opener. Southpaw Randy Jones fanned 10 Amarillo batters before the visitors picked up their runs in the seventh on a single, an error, a sacrifice fly and Chico Cedeno's double.

An 11-hit attack, including a home run by Al Putz, propelled Arkansas to its victory as the Travelers' Bob Forsch held El Paso to seven base knocks. Another seven-hit mound performance by the El Paso Sun Dodgers' Wayne Miller stood up for his second victory against one loss in the second game.

Memphis jumped on Midland relief pitcher Clint Compton in the eighth inning for a come-from-behind triumph. Ron Diggle, who socked a solo homer earlier, lined a bases-loaded single in the Blues' four-run rally. Righthander Bob Apodaca, now 5-5, relieved in the sixth frame to claim the decision.

Thor Skogan set San Antonio down on two hits as Shreveport coasted to victory in their first game despite a home run by the losers' Geno Marianna. In the nightcap, Sam Ashford's two-run homer for the Captains wasn't enough to overcome the Brewers' early lead.

There's a change of scenery tonight with Alexandria at San Antonio, Memphis at El Paso, Shreveport at Amarillo and Arkansas at Midland.

A terrarium is a container for plants with glass tops

DR. JAMES W. BRANCH

ANNOUNCES THE ASSOCIATION

OF HIS SON

DR. JAMES W. BRANCH, JR.

IN THE PRACTICE OF GENERAL SURGERY AND NUCLEAR MEDICINE

HOURS:

MONDAY THRU FRIDAY 9:30 TO 5:00

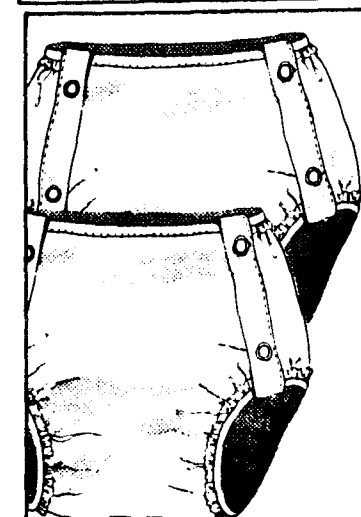

SATURDAY 'TILL NOON

PHONE 777-4636

Special 2 for $1

Great buys on men's socks. Choose casuals, crews, dress and over-the-calf styles. They're all stretch socks in assorted colors. Nylon, Orlon® acrylic, cotton or Ban-Lon® knit of nylon.

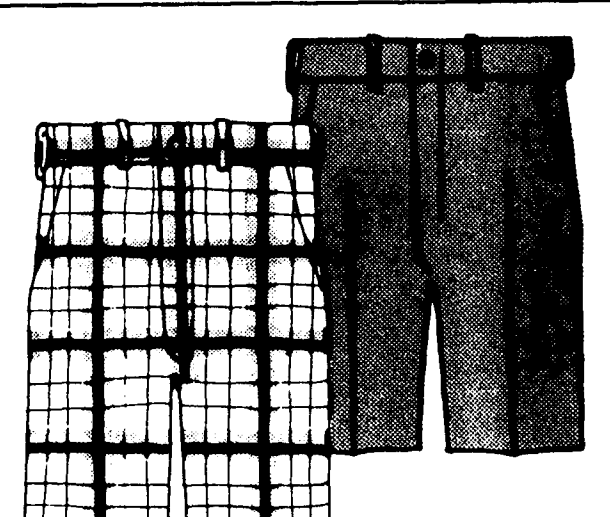

Special 6 for 88¢

Infants' snap-on waterproof vinyl pants. Elastic waist. In white only.

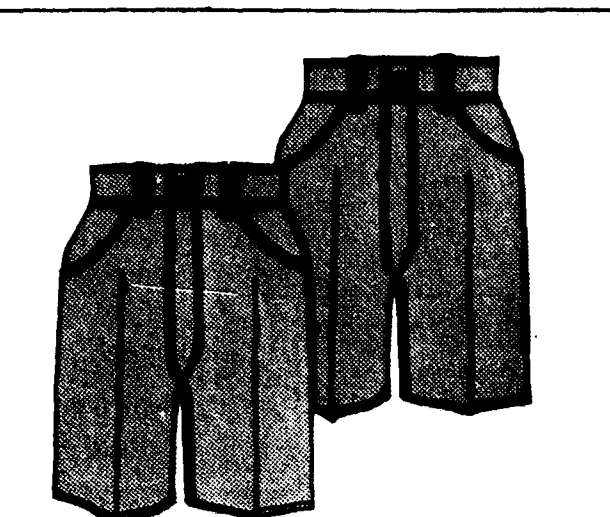

Special 2⁴⁴

Women's clear vinyl bubble umbrella with color border, smart looped handle.

Reduced 2⁵⁰

Men's cotton/polyester walk shorts in popular styles. Choose rich looking solids or patterns in sizes 30-42.

3 5⁰⁰

Boys' dungaree shorts. They're long wearing polyester/cotton and have western styling. Regular or slim. sizes 6-18

STORE HOURS
9-5:30

JCPenney
The values are here every day.
UPTOWN HOPE

CHARGE
IT!

Get Out Of The Red By Using Hope Star Want Ads. Phone 777-3431

All Want Ads are payable in advance but ad will be accepted over the telephone and accommodation accounts allowed with the understanding the account is payable when statement is rendered.

Number	One	Four	Six	One
words	Day	Days	Days	Mo.
Up to 15	1.30	2.70	3.30	9.35
16 to 20	1.50	3.15	3.90	11.00
21 to 25	1.70	3.60	4.40	12.50
26 to 30	1.90	4.05	4.90	14.00
31 to 35	2.10	4.50	5.40	15.50
36 to 40	2.30	4.95	5.90	17.00
41 to 45	2.70	5.85	6.90	20.00

Initials of one or more letters, group of figures, as house or telephone numbers count as one word.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY
1 Time—$1.45 per inch per day
4 Times—$1.30 per inch per day
6 Times—$1.15 per inch per day
1 Month—$1.00 per inch per day

STANDING CARD ADS
$30.00 per inch per month

Rates quoted above are for consecutive insertions. Irregular or skip date ads will take the one-day rate.

All daily classified advertising copy will be accepted until 4 p.m. for publication on the following day, with exception of Saturday's paper, which must be in by noon Friday.

The publisher reserves the right to revise or edit all advertisements offered for publication and to reject any objectionable advertising submitted.

The Hope Star will not be responsible for errors in Want Ads unless errors are called to our attention after FIRST insertion of ad and then ONLY the One incorrect insertion.

Phone 777-3431.

Miscellaneous

4. Notice

NOW OPENING—ARK-LA-TEX Furniture exchange. New and used furniture for sale. 315 South Ferguson. Highest prices paid for used furniture.

6-6-1f

FEDERAL LAND BANK LOANS for rural houses, broiler houses, pine timber, agriculture, at PCA office every Tuesday, 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., phone 777-6662 or contact Sidney J. Phillips, manager, or Robert M. Head, associate manager.

6-28-1mc

SAFE LOCK AND KEY Bicycle Shop will be closed from July 1 thru 11, for vacation.

6-27-12tc

GARAGE SALE: JULY 6, 7, 8—J.D. Smith's, Spring Hill. Depression Glass, Dishes, Crochet, Bottles and clothes.

7-3-4tp

Employment

8. Male or Female

WANTED: EXPERIENCED COOK, Top Pay. Call 777-4262 or come by Town & Country Restaurant and ask for Al Gideon.

7-1-4tc

AVON INVITES YOU to start earning extra cash by being an Avon Representative. It's a wonderful way to meet friendly people and make money for all the things you want. Opening in Hope and Guernsey area. Write: AVON, P.O. Box 944, Texarkana, Texas 75501.

7-5-4tc

45. Photo Finishing

12 Exposure Roll

Color Film

Process & Print

8mm Movie Film

reg. or Super processed . . .

Clyde Davis

PHOTOGRAPHY

220 S. Walnut

777-5611

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

6-29-61p

SIDE GLANCES

By GILL FOX

"What did you wish to have a confrontation with him about?"

OUT OUR WAY

By NEG COCHRAN

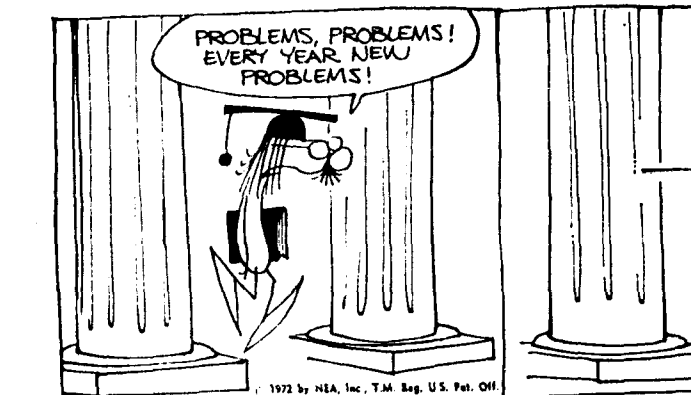

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By MAJOR HOOPLE

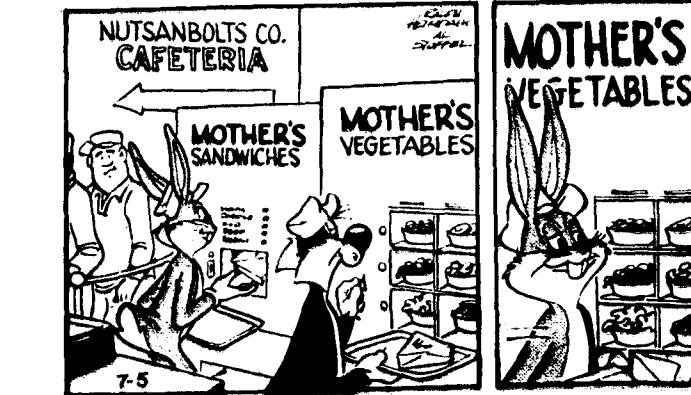

EK & MEK

THE BADGE GUYS

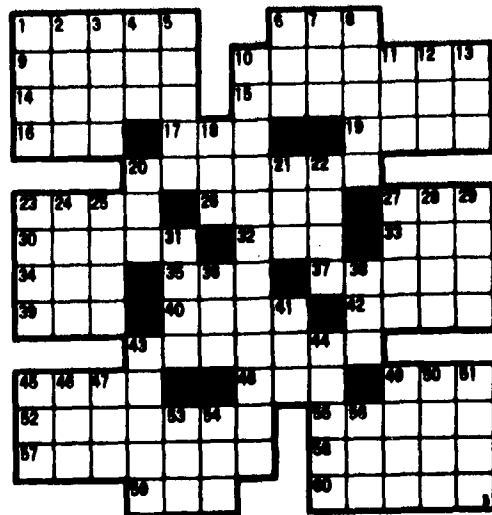

BUGS BUNNY

Money

- ACROSS
- French currency
 - Norwegian coin
 - City in Spain
 - Weak (Scot.)
 - American fur merchant
 - Place alone
 - Word of assent
 - Gallon (ab.)
 - Frosted
 - Crossword puzzle fans
 - Fit
 - Mexican coin
 - Escape (slang)
 - British currency
 - Primary color
 - Man's name
 - Printing need
 - As well as
 - More certain
 - Fruit drink
 - Former province
 - Spain
 - Chore, stint
 - Offend grossly
 - Masculine
 - Alkaline solution
 - Tiny mark
 - Land on Vespucci's map
 - Stir up
 - Turkish coin
 - Russian currency
 - Mao
 - A felony
- DOWN
- Censure
 - Garden

CARNIVAL

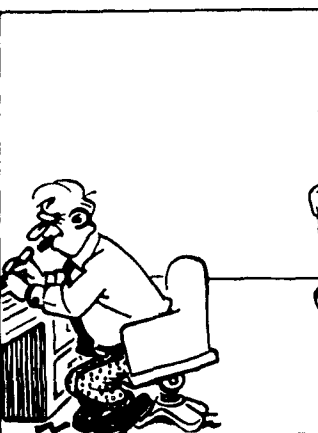

By DICK TURNER

QUICK QUIZ

- Q—How many constellations are there?
A—There are 88 constellations now recognized in modern astronomy.
- Q—Who wrote the famous "Timothy Titcomb Letters"?
A—Josiah G. Holland. They were a commentary on the morals and manners of the times.
- Q—Who baptized Jesus?
A—John the Baptist.

BLONDIE

By NOWIE SCHNEIDER

By BOWEN & SCHWARZ

By HEIMDAHL & STOFFEL

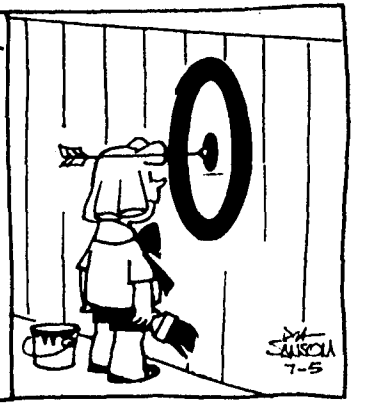

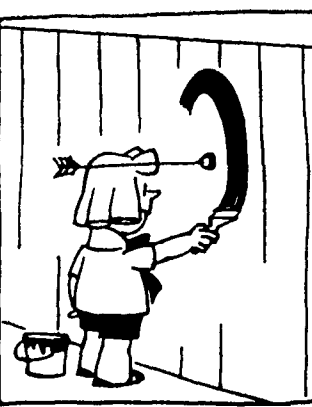

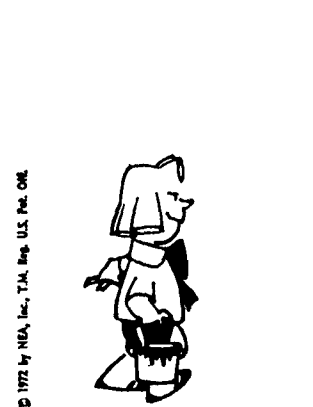

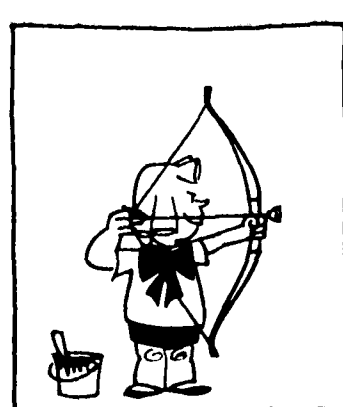

FLASH GORDON

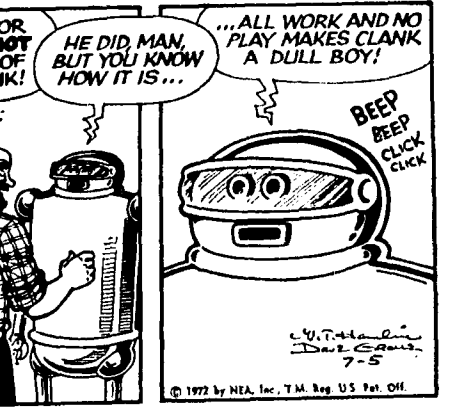

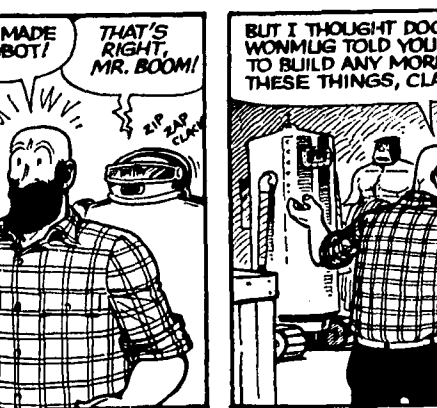

By DAN BARRY

THE BORN LOSER

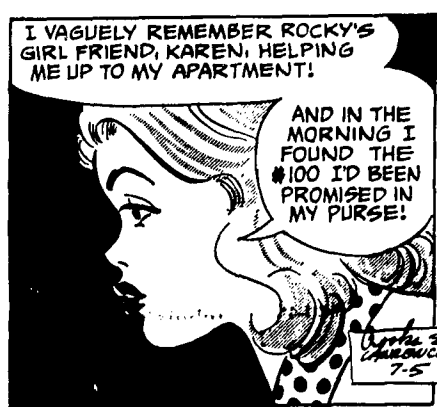

By ART SANSON

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. HAMLIN

CAPTAIN EASY

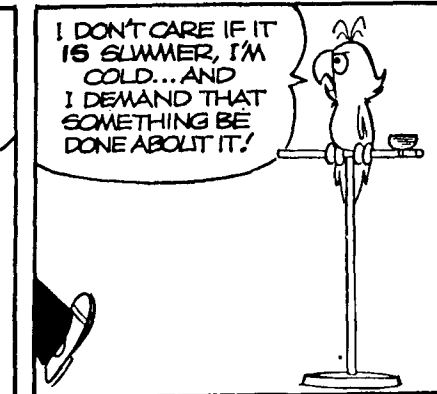

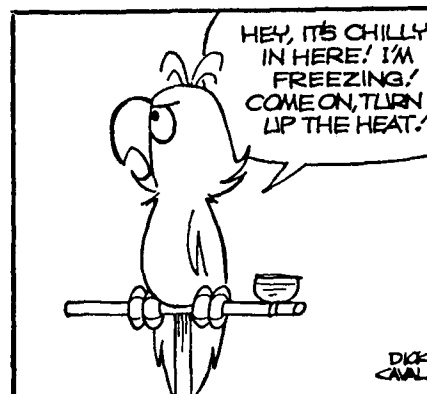

By CROOKS & LAWRENCE

By CHIC YOUNG

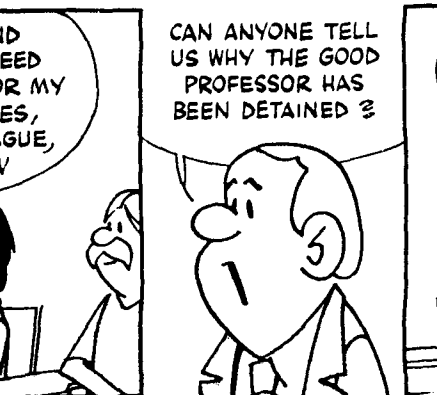

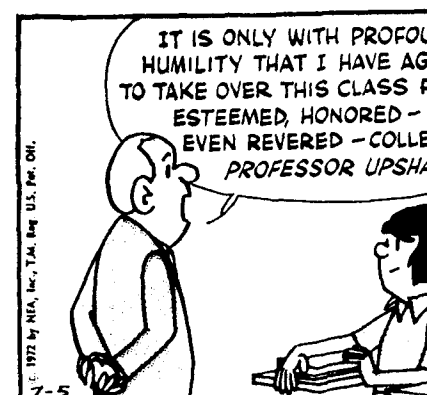

WINTHROP

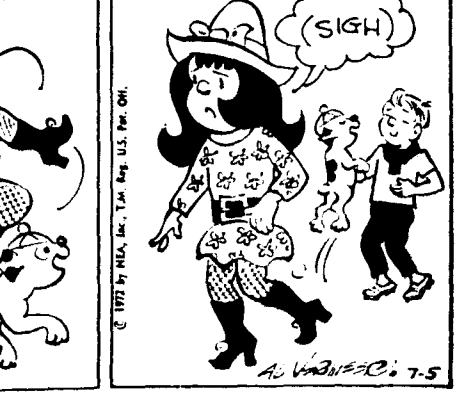

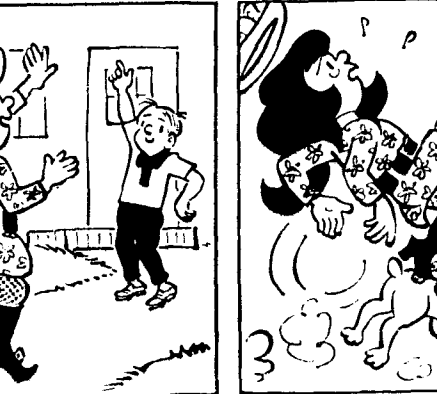

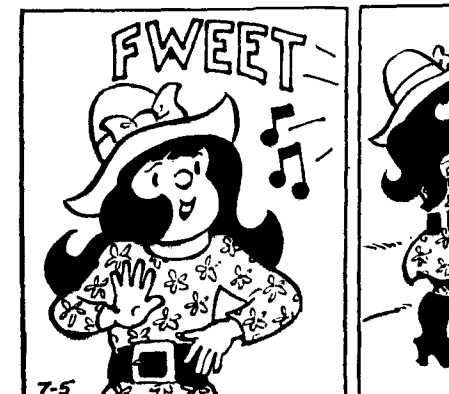

By DICK CAVALLI

CAMPUS CLATTER

By LARRY LEWIS

PRISCILLA'S POP

By AL VERMEER

People, not machines to admit Demo conventioners

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The people who attend the Democratic National Convention next week will be admitted by people, not machines. The Democrats hope that humans can do what electronic gatekeepers couldn't.

Major Amos graduates

Army Major John O. Amos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver W. Amos, Hope, recently completed the regular course at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

General William B. Rosson, commander-in-chief of the U.S. Army (Pacific) was the graduation speaker for the class of 1,268 U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Air Force officers and 95 allied officers.

The 10-month course at the Army's senior tactical school prepares the students for duty as commanders and as principal general staff officers with the Army in the field from division through Army group, and at field Army support and theater Army support commands.

Maj. Amos entered the Army in 1959 and was last stationed in Vietnam. He holds the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, and the Air Medal For Heroism.

The major received a B.S. degree in 1958 at Henderson State College, Arkadelphia.

In Chicago four years ago it was go or no-go — according to the capricious whims of a machine that flashed green or red

Fire sweeps hospital, 30 patients die

SHERBORNE, England (AP) — Fire swept through a wing of the Cold Harbor Mental Hospital early today, killing 30 of the 36 male patients sleeping in a ward.

The nursing staff rescued seven of the men, but one died later. The other six suffered minor injuries.

One of the dead patients was 16 years old and the rest were described as middle-aged. Most died in their beds, but the main doors were said to have been unlocked at the time of the blaze.

About 325 patients were in other buildings of the hospital. The fire occurred in the Winfrith Villa, a wing which opened nine months ago. Dr. Peter Johnson, chairman of the hospital management committee, said the most severely handicapped of the male patients were kept there.

Johnson said investigators had no idea yet what caused the fire. He said the firefighting equipment in the wing was "perfectly adequate."

"It was a very rapid fire, with a great deal of smoke," he added.

Troops attend Boy Scout Camp

Recently 25 boys from Hope's Troop 92, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, and seven boys from Fulton-Guernsey's Troop 73, sponsored by Luke's Plumbing Co., joined forces for a week at Camp Pioneer near Mena.

The boys were driven up on Sunday by a number of the parents.

The boys participating and the awards they received were: Larry Patton-18-mile Rich Mountain hike, wildlife management and pioneering; Paul Patton-rowing and conservation of natural resources; Scott Patton-fishing and second class rank; Mike Beard-wildlife management; Gerald Beard, Ricky Sisson-18-mile Rich Mountain hike and first aid; Glenn Cochran-swimming, first aid, and 18-mile Rich Mountain hike; John Walker-rowing, first aid, 18-mile Rich Mountain hike; Ricky Adkinson-conservation of natural resources and rowing; Ted Tolleson-conservation of natural resources and mile swim; Edward Morgan-conservation of natural resources and 18-mile Rich Mountain hike; Robert Gary-canoeing and 18-mile Rich Mountain hike; Robert Barger-18-mile Rich Mountain hike, rowing, and mile swim; Mark Moore-fishing and second class rank; Joe VanHorn, Scotty VanHorn, Tim Arnold-wildlife management.

Others attending were: Ricky Trout, Leslie Ferguson, Mike Smith, Bill Smith, Lou Moore, Milton Moore, Chris LaGrone, John Gams, Randy Biddle, Buddy Arnold, Billy Arnold, Eddie Akin, Gary Smith, Ken Cox, and Scott Rowland.

These boys were accompanied by Scoutmaster Harold Sisson, assisted by Junior Scoutmaster Larry Patton. On Wednesday assistant Scoutmasters Lawrence Adkinson and Richard VanHorn arrived to offer their aid. Sisson took the 18-mile hike with his troop Thursday.

On Friday morning Sisson and Adkinson were put through the "Scoutmasters Ordeal" which makes them a member of the Scoutmasters Club.

On Friday night a number of the parents arrived in camp to witness the award ceremonies and the Order of the Arrow tapout. At this time several of the boys were told that they had partial completions for merit badges with the actual completion to come shortly.

For the Order of the Arrow tapout, the following members were selected to become a member of this elite organization—Ricky Adkinson, Bobby Barger, Glenn Cochran, Edward Morgan, Sisson, Adkinson, and Explorer Advisor Albert Patton.

These festivities were witnessed by Mrs. Harold Sisson and son, Larry, the Albert Patton family, Mrs. Lawrence Adkinson and daughter, Cindy, Mrs. Bill Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan, Mrs. Richard VanHorn, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Moore and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Biddle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnold and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cochran.

Several of the parents stayed overnight and then accompanied the troops back to Hope.

Bill Muncey wins hydroplane race

MADISON, Ind. (AP) — Regatta officials sighed with relief Tuesday when they handed veteran driver Bill Muncey the World Championship trophy and Indiana Governor's cup for his victory in the unlimited hydroplane races.

Then officials began planning for a fresh start next year and hoping the 1973 event would be better than this year's 25th Madison Regatta.

Terry Sterett drove defending national champion, Miss Budweiser to second. Tom Sheehy, Atlas Van Lines II, was third, followed by Jim McCormick in Miss Timex and Bob Gilliam was fifth on Pizza Pete.

The 1972 Madison Regatta, a whole year in planning, turned into one of the greatest disasters in this southeastern Indiana community's history of running regattas.

The frustrations and setbacks that plagued this year's volunteer-run regatta began June 23rd when Miss Madison, which is owned by the city, sank in the Detroit River. That meant there would be no repeat of last year's glorious victory by Madison's hometown boat.

Later that day came news of tropical storm Agnes. It filled the Ohio River with flood water and debris.

and maybe not at all. A plastic card held by the user aided the machine in its decision. Sometimes it got fooled by an ordinary oil company credit card, but most often by its transistor innards.

The result was people who got in when they shouldn't; people who didn't when they should; and a lot of people who flashed redder than the machines.

This time, the Democrats have gone back to the old-fashioned admission ticket, numbered and color-coded, with secret and invisible markings to thwart would-be counterfeiters.

Next to the heat, the subject most discussed in this bare-back, lace-dress strip of nature-gone-overboard is "security." Security outside (Yippies, Hippies and Zippies) and security inside (delegates, challengers, newsmen and messengers).

On suggestion of the Secret Service, the convention hall will undergo a military-type inspection for possible bombs beginning at midnight Sunday. It will not be reopened until Monday afternoon.

"The system relies on people not knowing what's in it," says Wesley Pomeroy, the man in charge of security inside.

For instance, the party's Security Advisory Committee, which he heads, has been working for a year on ways to make the entry easier for those who should get in; and harder for those who shouldn't.

Only Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien and others of similar rank have passes for all sessions. Each day, just before the convention opens, the day's tickets will go to the heads of delegations.

The tickets were printed in a secret place, under guard. They are now stored, under guard. The day's color will be chosen just before distribution.

Going past the gatekeepers, people will pass through metal sniffers such as those airports use to detect hijackers. Briefcases will be searched.

Internal security for the huge convention center complex was put on bid and eight firms applied. The winner was McDonnell-Frain, which has had experience with such tightly guarded events as the Super Bowl and the 1968 Republican National Convention.

Inside the hall will be bomb squads and plainclothes police. Seven of the would-be candidates have Secret Service protection. Somewhere in the complex is a command center where representatives of various security segments will coordinate actions should there be trouble inside, outside or both.

HOWARD

GIBCO

DISCOUNT CENTER

"WHERE YOU ALWAYS BUY THE BEST FOR LESS"

JULY SUPER SALES EVENT

PRICES GOOD WED-THURS-FRI-SAT

JULY 5-6-7-8

HIGHWAY 4-NORTH

HOPE, ARKANSAS

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT QUANTITIES

SCREEN PRINT POLYESTER
KNIT

Big Selection Of Colors

Retail $3.97

Howard's Discount Price $2.57 Yard

Save 27c Over Retail Price On Giant Size Tide, With This Coupon

GIANT SIZE
TIDE 68¢ ONLY

Retail 95c

Howard's Discount Price 68¢

GOOD ONLY AT HOWARD'S DISCOUNT CENTER, HOPE, ARK.

OFFER EXPIRES 7-15-72

LIMIT 1 COUPON PER PURCHASE

Special Group

PLASTIC FLOWERS

At Tremendous Savings!

Retail Price	Howards Discount
39¢	Now 27¢
29¢	Now 19¢
19¢	Now 14¢
10¢	Now 7¢

BIG SELECTION

100 Percent Polyester

DOUBLE KNIT

Values To $5.98

Howards Discount Price $2.57 Yard

No. G-12-50
1/2" x 50 Ft.

MONSANTO GARDEN HOSE

Retail $1.98

$1.27

No. 90-222
3 1/2 H.P.
22 Inch

LAWN MOWER

Retail $59.95

Howards Discount Price $39.88

No. C 23x2
General Appliance
7 H.P. 25"

RIDING MOWER

Retail $299.95

Howards Discount Price $199.97

No. 10135

HOPPITY DONALD DUCK BALL

Fun From Sun

Retail $12.95

Howards Discount Price $7.88

25 Lb. Bag

SUNSHINE DOG FOOD

Retail $2.85

Howards Discount Price $1.99

LADY HOPE CANNED CHICKEN

3 Lb. 4 Oz.

Retail $1.19

73¢

DEL MONTE SLICED OR CRUSHED PINEAPPLE

Retail 37c

Howards Discount Price 4 Cans $1.00 For

DEL MONTE SWEET PEAS Or CUT GREEN BEANS

Retail 28c

Howards Discount Price 4 16 Oz. Cans 89¢

DEL MONTE CREAM OR FAMILY STYLE CORN

Retail 26c

Howards Discount Price 5 Cans For 89¢

DEL MONTE CATSUP

Retail 29c

Howards Discount Price 5 14 Oz. Bottles $1

No. CK90

COOKER GRILL

Retail $29.95

Howards Discount Price $18.88

ultra brite

REGULAR - OR - COOLMINT

Family Size 6.75 Oz.

ULTRA BRITE TOOTH PASTE

No. 544

Retail $1.09

Howards Discount Price 67¢

HOUR AFTER HOUR Spray Deodorant

4 Oz. Size

Retail $1.09

Howards Discount Price 67¢

No. 878

HAIR SPRAY

Scented Or Unscented

13 Oz. Can

Retail $1.49

Howards Discount Price 68¢

No. 1514

COTTON MINNOW SEINES

15' x 4' x 1/4"

Retail $5.60

Howards Discount Price $3.44

FAMOUS NAME BRANDS

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED ON EVERY PURCHASE